Buddhist Hybrid Sanskrit Grammar and Dictionary (2 Vols.) Franklin Edgerton, This is the first attempt at a description of the grammar and lexicon of Buddhist Hybrid Sanskrit Most North Indian Buddhist texts are composed in it It is based primarily on an old Middle Indic vernacular not otherwise identifiable But there seems reason to believe that it contains features that were borrowed from other Middle

Indic dialects In other words even its Middle Indic aspects are dialectically somewhat mixed Most strikingly however BHS was also extensively influenced by Sanskrit from the very beginning of the tradition as it has been transmitted to us and increasingly as time went on Many especially later products of this tradition have often though misleadingly been called simply Sanskrit without qualification In principle the author has excluded from the grammar and dictionary all forms which are standard Sanskrit and all words which are used in standard Sanskrit with the same meanings Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971 Teaching Language Arts in Middle Schools Sharon Kingen, 2000-02 Primary text for middle school language arts methods courses Presents balanced attention to various teaching strategies processes and content demonstrating how all of these connect to improve students abilities to communicate African Perspectives on the Teaching and Learning of English in Higher Education Alexandra Esimaje, Bertus van Rooy, 'Demola Jolayemi, Daniel Nkemleke, Ernest Klu, 2023-05-23 This book brings together the work of African scholars and educators directly involved in initiatives to improve the teaching and learning of English in higher education across Africa Offering alternative perspectives across different African countries with examples of decolonised practice in research the book provides a critical discussion and examples of successful practice in the teaching of English in Africa Each chapter of the book reports on a specific context and a specific teaching and or learning initiative in higher education with emphasis on comparability of information and on clear evaluation and critical analysis of the intervention The editors offer a thoughtful comparison of different methods strategies and results to provide an authoritative reference to effective strategies for English teaching and learning The book paints a cohesive picture of the field of English language teaching in Africa and will be of great interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the areas of applied linguistics English teaching and comparative education
