Apostate Englishman Albert Braz, 2015-09-18 In the 1930s Grey Owl was considered the foremost conservationist and nature writer in the world He owed his fame largely to his four internationally bestselling books which he supported with a series of extremely popular illustrated lectures across North America and Great Britain His reputation was transformed radically however after he died in April 1938 and it was revealed that he was not of mixed Scottish Apache ancestry as he had often claimed but in fact an Englishman named Archie Belaney Born into a privileged family in the dominant culture of his time what compelled him to flee to a far less powerful one Albert Braz's Apostate Englishman Grey Owl the Writer and the Myths is the first comprehensive study of Grey Owl's cultural and political image in light of his own writings While the denunciations of Grey Owl after his death are often interpreted as a rejection of his appropriation of another culture Braz argues that what troubled many people was not only that Grey Owl deceived them about his identity but also that he had forsaken European culture for the North American Indigenous way of life That is he committed cultural apostasy

Jarraway, 2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity Beginning with the adaptation of Margaret Laurence's A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English Hap Wilson's Wilderness 3-Book Bundle Hap Wilson, 2018-01-15 Noted traveller and environmentalist Hap Wilson shares accounts of his lifelong involvement with wilderness living within the Canadian Shield Wilson knows better than most how to live in the woods As park ranger canoe guide outfitter trail builder and environmental activist he learned from firsthand experience that nature can neither be beaten or tamed This three book bundle includes The Cabin A Search for Personal Sanctuary Noted environmentalist Hap Wilson takes us along a wilderness trail replete with snags and pitfalls through mishaps tears and laughter Grey Owl and Me Stories From the Trail and Beyond Hap Wilson is back for another journey Nurtured by the writings of Grey Owl Wilson adopted a similar lifestyle to the 1930s conservationist but with his own twists and turns Wilson recounts the early days of winter camping takes readers to some of his favourite places and shares intimate secrets of wilderness living Trails and Tribulations Confessions of a Wilderness Pathfinder Noted northern traveller Hap Wilson shares accounts of his lifelong involvement with wilderness living within the Canadian Shield A park ranger canoe guide and environmental activist Wilson takes the reader on a journey through natural settings ranging from austere to mysterious and breathtaking Canoe Country Roy MacGregor, 2015-09-08 One of our favourite chroniclers of all things Canadian presents a rollicking personal photo filled history of the relationship between a country and its canoes From the earliest explorers on the Columbia River in BC or the Mattawa in Ontario to a doomed expedition of voyageurs up the Nile to rescue Khartoum from the author's family roots deep in the Algonquin wilderness to modern families who have canoed across the country kids and dogs included Canoe Country is Roy MacGregor's celebration of the essential and enduring love affair Canadians have with our first and still favourite means of getting around Famous paddlers have been so enchanted with the canoe that one swore God made Canada as the perfect country in which to paddle it Drawing on MacGregor's own decades spent whenever possible with a
