Jazma Online! Interviews, Reviews and More! Richard Vasseur, 2014-02-07 These are the comic book creator interviews comic book reviews published from Jazma Online www.jazmaonline.com Going since 1996 Richard Vasseur Allen Klingelhoets and Paul Dale Roberts keep truckin ahead in the comic book multiverse The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman, 2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production Grey's Anatomy 101 Leah Wilson, 2007 The 2005 2006 season's smash hit Grey's Anatomy swiftly eclipsed its Desperate Housewives lead in ratings in critical claim and in vocal viewer enthusiasm What could have been just another hospital drama is elevated by sharp clever writing strong female characters and a stellar ensemble cast of multi ethnic actors With 20 million viewers tuning in every week Grey's Anatomy was the new must see television show of the year From lighthearted relationship speculations to analyses of deeper themes Grey's Anatomy 101 gives new perspectives on all facets of the series If Addison hadn't showed up would Meredith and Derek have stayed together How is Grey's Anatomy the first real 21st century show Why is everything in Grey's Anatomy so well gray And what would Nietzsche have to say about George O Malley The writers in Grey's Anatomy 101 give fans more of their favorite television show delivering writing as smart as funny and as earnest as the show they love Ace Angela Chen, 2020-09-15 An engaging exploration of what it means to be asexual in a world that's obsessed with sexual attraction and what the ace perspective can teach all of us about desire and identity What exactly is sexual attraction and what is it like to go through life not experiencing it What does asexuality reveal about gender roles about romance and consent and the pressures of society This accessible examination of asexuality shows that the issues that aces face confusion around sexual activity the intersection of sexuality and identity navigating different needs in relationships are the same conflicts that nearly all of us will experience Through a blend of reporting cultural criticism and memoir Ace addresses the misconceptions around the A of LGBTQIA and invites everyone to rethink pleasure and intimacy Journalist Angela Chen creates her path to understanding her own asexuality with the perspectives of a diverse group of asexual people Vulnerable and honest these stories include a woman who had blood tests done because she was convinced that not wanting sex was a sign of serious illness and a man who grew up in a religious household and did everything right only to realize after marriage that his experience of sexuality had never been the same as that of others Disabled aces aces of color gender nonconforming aces and aces who both do and don't want romantic relationships all share their experiences navigating a society in which a lack of sexual attraction is considered abnormal Chen's careful cultural analysis explores how societal norms limit understanding of sex and relationships and celebrates the breadth of sexuality and queerness The Real Grey's Anatomy Andrew Holtz, 2010-01-05 The ABC medical drama Grey's Anatomy has generated a flurry of interest in how medical professionals really make it through one of the most rigorous educational programs around but how much of the medical drama seen in Grey's Anatomy is pure entertainment and how much is an accurate reflection of life both in and out of the OR In The Real Grey's Anatomy a well known medical journalist provides some answers He examines a group of new surgical residents at a major teaching hospital in the Pacific Northwest as they tackle the roller coaster ride of long hours fascinating procedures mundane office tasks and emotional ups and downs that comprise the life of a student of surgery

Authorship as Promotional Discourse in the Screen Industries Leora Hadas, 2020-04-30 This book discusses the use of authorship discourses and author figures in the promotion and marketing of media content dealing with the U S mainstream media including franchise film network television and triple A video games The research takes a unique approach studying ideas of authorship in promotion diverging from extant approaches looking at the text production or reception Conceptualizing authorship within the logic of media branding the book studies the construction of ideas around creativity and the creative person in marketing and publicity content where media industries communicate with audiences A cross media approach allows the book to take a broad look and make comparisons across the increasingly integrated media industries The book will be of great relevance to academics in the fields of film television and media studies including postgraduate students conducting teaching and research around authorship media industries and media promotion

Social TV Cory Barker, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 SCMS Media Industries Scholarly Interest Group Outstanding Book Award sponsored by the Center for Entertainment Media Industries On March 15 2011 Donald Trump changed television forever The Comedy Central Roast of Trump was the first major live broadcast to place a hashtag in the corner of the screen to encourage real time reactions on Twitter generating more than 25 000 tweets and making the broadcast the most watched Roast in Comedy Central history The trumproast initiative personified the media and tech industries utopian vision for a multi screen and communal live TV experience In Social TV Multi Screen Content and Ephemeral Culture author Cory Barker reveals how the US television industry promised but failed to deliver a social media revolution in the 2010s to combat the imminent threat of on demand streaming video Barker examines the rise and fall of Social TV across press coverage corporate documents and an array of digital ephemera He demonstrates that despite the talk of disruption the movement merely aimed to exploit social media to reinforce the value of live TV in the modern attention economy Case studies from broadcast networks to tech start ups uncover a persistent focus on community that aimed to monetize consumer behavior in a transitional industry period To trace these unfulfilled promises and flopped ideas Barker draws upon a unique mix of personal Social TV experiences and curated archives of material that were intentionally marginalized amid pivots to the next big thing Yet in placing this now forgotten material in recent historical context Social TV shows how the era altered how the industry pursues audiences Multi screen campaigns have shifted away from a focus on live TV and toward all day content streams The legacy of Social TV then is the further embedding of media and promotional material onto every screen and into every moment of life Career Building Through Fan Fiction Writing Miriam Segall,2008-01-15 Introduces readers to fan fiction writing the creation of original stories based on characters and settings from popular fiction television programs films or video games and suggests ways that this creative activity might lead to a career in writing Aesthetic Cosmopolitanism and Global Culture ,2019-11-11 Gathering scholars from five continents this edited book displaces the elitist image of cosmopolitan as well as the blame addressed to aesthetic cosmopolitanism often considered as merely cosmetic By considering aesthetic cosmopolitanism as a tool to understand how individuals and social groups appropriate the sphere of culture in a global world the authors are concerned with its operationalization on two strongly interwoven levels macro and micro structural and individual Based on the discussion of theoretical perspectives and empirically grounded research qualitative and quantitative conducted in many countries this volume unveils new insights on tourism and food architecture and museums TV series and movies rock K pop and samba by providing resources for making sense of aesthetic preferences in a global perspective Contributors are Felicia Chan Vincenzo Cicchelli Talitha Alessandra Ferreira Paula Iadevito Sukhmani Khorana Anne Krebs Antoinette Kujilaars Franck Mermier Sylvie Octobre Joana Pellerano Rosario Radakovich Motti Regev Viviane Riegel Clara Rodriguez Leslie Sklair Yi Ping Eva Shi Claire Thoumelin and Dario Verderame
