Powell, 1931-1965 Dawn Powell, 1995 One of the outstanding literary finds of the last quarter century The New York Times Book Review Weighty Problems Laura Backstrom, 2019-04-05 Many parents teachers and doctors believe that childhood

obesity is a social problem that needs to be solved Yet missing from debates over what caused the rise in childhood obesity and how to fix it are the children themselves By investigating how contemporary cultural discourses of childhood obesity are experienced by children Laura Backstrom illustrates how deeply fat stigma is internalized during the early socialization experiences of children Weighty Problems details processes of embodied inequality how the children came to recognize inequalities related to their body size how they explained the causes of those differences how they responded to micro level injustices in their lives and how their participation in a weight loss program impacted their developing self image The book finds that embodied inequality is constructed and negotiated through a number of interactional processes including resocialization stigma management social comparisons and attribution Poet of the Appetites Joan Reardon, 2005-10-12

Christened by John Updike as the poet of the appetites M F K Fisher changed the way Americans understood the art of living But she was also a master mythologizer This multifaceted portrayal is no less memorable than the personae Fisher crafted for herself The Times Index ,2006 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times
