World Class Initiatives and Practices in Early Education Louise Boyle Swiniarski, 2013-12-11 This book offers current international initiatives developed for working with children from Birth to Eight by a diverse group of noted professional authors Their readings present an overview of early education as it evolved from the Froebelian kindergarten to today's practices in various Early Education settings around the globe. The international voices of the authors represent a balanced perspective of happenings in various nations and lend a conversational approach to each chapter. The chapters analyze the Universal Preschool Education movement promoted by various countries, states, and agencies; examine model curriculum programs in a variety of teaching/learning settings; and identify directions the community can take in promoting effective early education programs. Particular attention is given to key issues and concerns faced by practitioners and families worldwide. Studies reveal successful approaches to bilingual education in a Chilean kindergarten; research findings on gender differences in primary school girls for learning science in Wales; literacy development strategies for teaching in UK multicultural classrooms and childhood centres; the process of integration of special education with early childhood practices in China; and exemplars of community outreach to improve the well-being of children through advocacy for governmental changes in early education policies and professional development. This book is for everyone interested in the well-being of young children moving forward in a global age to meet the challenges of early citizenship in their world. Bilingualism in International Schools Maurice Carder, 2007-01-10

International Schools have developed since their inception from a largely native English-speaking student body to schools such as the author's the Vienna International School (VIS) where there are students of 90 nationalities with 65 mother tongues. Maurice Carder proposes a three-programme model for addressing the language and curricula needs of these students: a content-based second language programme; a programme of cultural and linguistic training for all staff; and a mother tongue programme for minority students. The model is based on research findings and practice at the VIS every year approximately 1/3 of the graduating students gain an IB Diploma International Baccalaureate because they are able to take their mother tongue other than English or German as Language A1. The book contains insightful chapters not only for school leaders, programme designers, and teachers but also for parents. Inserted boxes of student responses give an authentic voice to the needs of second language learners and many useful resources and websites are given. Bilingual Literacy Development at Home Yang Wang, 2025-09-30 This book explores pedagogical implications for how children read, write, respond to literature, and begin to learn an additional language in the home context. Using a longitudinal ethnographic study, it explores a bilingual child's literacy development over a span of four years from kindergarten to the third grade in a real-life home context in the United States. Written from a parent-researcher's perspective, it illustrates the child's Mandarin Chinese and English language support at home and in the community during the pandemic and charts the development in bilingual reading and writing. Multimodal reading responses to children's literature and learning Spanish as a third language. Through rich and detailed descriptions, the case study methodology allows a clear articulation of the project's focus and foregrounds the exploration of reading as a sociopsycholinguistic process, as well as highlighting multimodality in reading and writing responses, translanguaging, and bilingual and bicultural identities to study and teach culturally and linguistically diverse children It will be a valuable resource for literacy researchers scholars and bilingual educators with interests in sociolinguistics literacy education bilingualism and translanguaging
