Nachkriegsliteratur Ute Müller,2005    The Guest Worker Question in Postwar Germany Rita Chin,2007-03-05 This book provides the first English language history of the postwar labor migration to West Germany Drawing on government bulletins statements by political leaders parliamentary arguments industry newsletters social welfare studies press coverage and the cultural production of immigrant artists and intellectuals Rita Chin offers an account of West German public debate about guest workers She traces the historical and ideological shifts around the meanings of the labor migration moving from the concept of guest workers as a temporary labor supplement in the 1950s and 1960s to early ideas about multiculturalism by the end of the 1980s She argues that the efforts to come to terms with the permanent residence of guest workers especially Muslim Turks forced a major rethinking of German identity culture and nation What began as a policy initiative to fuel the economic miracle ultimately became a much broader discussion about the parameters of a specifically German brand of multiculturalism

Group Portrait with Lady Heinrich Böll,2011-04-05 Cited by the Nobel Prize committee as the crown of Heinrich Böll's work the gripping story of Group Portrait With Lady unspools like a suspenseful documentary Via a series of tense interviews an unnamed narrator uncovers the story past and present of one of Böll's most intriguing characters the enigmatic Leni Pfeiffer a struggling war widow At the center of her struggle is her effort to prevent the demolition of her Cologne apartment building a fight in which she is joined by a motley group of neighbors Along with her illegitimate son Lev she becomes the nexus of a countercultural group rebelling against Germany's dehumanizing past under the Nazis and what looks to be an equally dehumanizing future under capitalism

Heinrich Böll ,1994    Representing the "good German" in Literature and Culture After 1945 Pól Ó

Dochartaigh,Christiane Schönfeld,2013 Essays analyzing postwar literary cultural and historical representations of good Germans during the Second World War and the Nazi period In the aftermath of the Second World War both the allied occupying powers and the nascent German authorities sought Germans whose record during the war and the Nazi period could serve as a counterpoint to the notion of Germans as evil That search has never really stopped In the past few years we have witnessed a burgeoning of cultural representations of this other kind of Third Reich citizen the good German as opposed to the committed Nazi or genocidal maniac Such representations have highlighted individuals choices in favor of dissenting behavior moral truth or at the very least civil disobedience The good German's counterhegemonic practice cannot negate or contradict the barbaric reality of Hitler's Germany but reflects a value system based on humanity and an other ideal community This volume of new essays explores postwar and recent representations of good Germans during the Third Reich analyzing the logic of moral behavior cultural and moral relativism and social conformity found in them It thus draws together discussions of the function and reception of Good Germans in Germany and abroad Contributors Eoin Bourke Manuel Bragan a Maeve Cooke Kevin De Ornellas Sabine Egger Joachim Fischer Coman Hamilton Jon Hughes Karina von Lindeiner Str sky Alexandra Ludewig P l O Dochartaigh Christiane Sch nfeld Matthias Uecker P l O Dochartaigh is Professor of German and Dean of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Ulster Northern Ireland Christiane Sch nfeld is Senior Lecturer in German and Head of the Department of German Studies at Mary Immaculate College University of Limerick
