Guerre Du Kosovo Dossier Secret Ebook:

Guerre du Kosovo Eric Laurent, 1999-01-01 Le 24 mars 1999 les 19 pays de l'OTAN déclenchent les bombardements aériens contre la Yougoslavie. A cette date 45 000 Kosovars avaient fui en Albanie. Aujourd'hui les réfugiés sont plus de 1 million et entassés dans les camps, victimes de la stratégie de purification ethnique lancée par Slobodan Milosevic. Comment en est-on arrivé là ? Semaine après semaine, parfois jour après jour, ce livre décrit l'engrenage qui a mené la guerre. L'auteur a rencontré les principaux protagonistes. Nous découvrons Bill Clinton angoissé par la menace d'impeachment qui passe sur lui absent des réunions de crise, la Maison Blanche puis multipliant les consultations téléphoniques avec ses alliés européens. Nous suivons les négociations entre Milosevic et les missaires occidentaux ses dénégations malgré les massacres qui se perpétuent au Kosovo. Nous assistons au dramatique tête à tête entre Wesley Clark commandant suprême des forces de l'OTAN venu Belgrade brandir la menace des frappes aériennes et le Président yougoslave qui lui lance : Vous êtes un criminel de guerre. Nous sommes au quartier général de l'OTAN lors des premières erreurs de bombardements contre des civils et dans les salons de la Maison Blanche le 21 avril quand Tony Blair plaide en vain auprès de Clinton pour le déploiement des forces terrestres. Kosovo and the International Community Christian Tomuschat, 2021-10-25 NATO's air operation against Yugoslavia undertaken with a view to helping the Kosovo Albanians resist genocide and ethnic cleansing confronted the international community with a bitter dilemma. In Europe the choice either to tolerate massive violations of human rights or to infringe the principle of non use of force given the absence of explicit authorization by the Security Council was a challenge never before encountered since the new world order was ushered in by the Charter of the United Nations. This book a collection of legal essays which emerged from a meeting of members of the French, German and Polish societies of international law not only attempts to analyze the Kosovo war from the viewpoint of humanitarian intervention based on the failure of the Rambouillet conference but also intends to provide an overall picture of the responsibilities incumbent on the international community. Starting with the lifting of Kosovo's autonomy by the Yugoslav federal authorities in 1989-90 it follows the tragic events step by step. Not only are the crimes committed by Yugoslav military units and police as well as by the Kosovo Liberation Army listed in specific detail an inquiry is also made into NATO's compliance with the applicable standards of humanitarian law. The book concludes with an examination of the future of the province in light of Security Council resolution 1244 of 1999 and the Stability Pact adopted to ensure economic recovery of the entire region. La dernière image Gani Jakupi, 2012

Kosovo: the Politics of Delusion Kyril Drezov, Bulent Gokay, Michael Waller, 2014-05-22 This collection examines the escalation of the Kosovo conflict to a full scale war.
