What You Didn't Learn in Sunday School Shawna R. B

Atteberry,2013-02-06 In the last few years I ve read rants against the evils of feminism from some of the top Evangelical and Fundamentalist Christian leaders who blame women wanting to go to work go into ministry and be equals to their husbands for all the social ills happening in our country If women would just stay home divorce rates would plummet no abortions would happen public schools wouldn t be in trouble and all the world s ills would come to an end There s just one little problem Does the Bible really say all of that What You Didn t Learn in Sunday School will introduce you to women in the Bible who Were religious leaders Disobeyed their husbands to obey Godde Had careers Made their own decisions And guess what The world did not end Eight verses have been used to make women second class citizens and at times virtual slaves to their husbands The rest of the Bible is full of stories of strong women who led their families their people and their countries

The Son of Man in the Parables of Enoch and in Matthew Leslie W. Walck,2011-04-14 This book examines all the relevant passages containing the Term Son of Man in both Matthew and the Parables of Enoch Depictions of the Son of Man in the Gospel of Matthew and in the Parables of Enoch Par En raise questions about their relationship The meaning and origin of the term Son of Man are discussed as well as the possible influence of Par En on Matthew Literary Redaction Sociological and Narrative criticisms are employed Introductory questions of date provenance and social setting are addressed for both Matthew and Par En Dates as early as the early second century bce and as late as the late third century ce have been proposed for Par En but a consensus seems to be growing for the late first century bce Therefore Matthew could have known Par En Sociological methodologies reveal that the author and audience of Par En may have been members of an ousted ruling elite opposed to the current administration and yearning for a just reversal of fortunes Sets of characteristics of the Son of Man in Par En and Matthew are developed and the term is examined briefly in the other Gospels Then the two sets of characteristics are carefully compared Similarities in vocabulary as well as in the pattern of relationships prove to be intriguing showing that Matthew and Par En in contrast to other writings share a unique conception of the judgment scene focussed on the Son of Man as eschatological judge This suggests quite strongly the shaping of Matthew s concept in the direction of Par En
