

QUICK HARVARD REFERENCING GUIDE

This guide provides practical examples to help you create references for information sources using the APU Harvard referencing style.

- In-text Referencing: involves citing references within the text of your work where you have used ideas or material from other sources.
- End-text referencing (also known as your Reference List): includes all materials used in your document. It provides the full information of reference sources necessary for a reader to locate and retrieve them.

IMPORTANT NOTE: When writing your reference list, do not present them in different section based on the types of information sources. All sources of information must be presenting in a single list in ascending alphabetical order.

| Resources                                                 | In-Text Referencing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | End-Text Referencing (Reference List)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
