Tolchin, 2007-10-30 A World Ignited is about the surge of anger that has swept the world in the last decade its myriad causes its toll in lives and human misery The authors conclude this important and timely book in an upbeat manner with a look at the politics of hope and what can be done to halt and even reverse this cacophony of hate A Phenomenology of Love and Hate Peter Hadreas, 2016-03-23 Using phenomenology to uncover the implicit logic in personal love sexual love and hatred Peter Hadreas provides new insights into the uniqueness of the beloved and offers fresh explanations for some of the worst outbreaks of violence and hatred in modern times Topics discussed include the value and subjectivity of personal love nudity and the temporality of sexual love the connection between personal sexual love and the incest taboo the development of group focused hatred from individual focused hatred and prejudicial discrimination The work encompasses analysis of philosophers and writers from ancient times through to the present day and examines such episodes as the Oklahoma City Federal Building bombing and the Columbine High School massacre Islamist Terrorism and Militancy in Indonesia Kumar Ramakrishna, 2014-10-19 Drawing upon insights from the natural and social sciences this book puts forth a provocative new argument that the violent Islamist threat in Indonesia today derives its stubborn resilience from being in essence a complex adaptive and self organizing system or what some specialists might even call a super organism The book challenges the popular assumption that ideology is the root cause that explains why Indonesian Islamists radicalize into violent extremism In addition it addresses why despite years of intense security force pressure seemingly disparate militant cells keep popping up like the proverbial hydra and in the apparent absence of a centralized coordinating body nevertheless appear to display an organic interconnectivity with one another Going beyond standard ideological mantras the book argues that fresh interdisciplinary thinking is needed to cope with the constantly mutating violent Islamist challenge in Indonesia and puts forth a comprehensive strategy for doing so It will be of interest to academics and students of terrorism religion and violence in the Southeast Asian region The Hate Handbook Martin Oppenheimer, 2005-01-01 In clear conversational and shockingly frank prose Martin Oppenheimer explores the causes of hatred and bigotry The Hate Handbook is a unique and brilliant effort by a well known sociologist of social movements to communicate to all who are interested why it is that people hate and kill one another and despite massive tragedy why it is that they continue to do so today Hate Crimes Donald Altschiller, 2015-09-15 Hate crime is a disturbing phenomenon that is the subject of constant debate discussion and legislation This book helps readers understand the complex issue and see how the government and activists are proactively combating hate crime With the first two editions widely praised by reviewers Hate Crimes A Reference Handbook Third Edition remains the most comprehensive reference source on bias motivated violence committed in the United States The

The Absence of Evidence and Its Consequences in Travesties of Justice Raphael Israeli,2019-01-29 This book is built on the assumption that very often what seems to be evidence turns out to be fake news while libels and stereotypes that have no foundation in reality are accepted as evidence thus potentially causing travesties of justice Examples are drawn here from several prominent and renowned case studies including OJ Simpson s trial and the fiasco of American intervention in Iraq to search for the traces of weapons of mass destruction which were not found The book also explores the history of anti Semitism which is replete with false accusations where evidence was lacking and Jews were nevertheless convicted It also shows how the Arab Israeli conflict also demonstrates how unfounded accusations can be sustained by lies proving that beliefs and prejudices are sometime stronger than hard facts

Ramakrishna,2009-03-20 This book explores two of the most crucial areas of the war on terror 1 why some Muslims turn to violent jihad and 2 that process in the world s most populous Muslim nation Indonesia The recent history of terrorism in Indonesia has brought this country into the world spotlight the Bali night club bombing by Islamists in 2002 was one of the worst terrorist attacks in history The recent violence following the executions of three of the Bali bombers together with a number of thwarted bomb plots demonstrate the continuing danger posed by radicalized violent Islamists in the country Written by one of Southeast Asia s leading counter terrorism experts Radical Pathways offers innovative new perspectives on the sources of violent Muslim radicalization and what should be done to counter it

The Intractable Dispute Raphael Israeli,2019-02-21 The Middle East conflict which has been raging for a century and seems to have no end in sight is not over territory or other assets but is historically anchored in the Islamic tradition which has become the preponderant faith of the Arabs Being a qualitative factor of an either or import from the Muslim point of view which is today best expressed by Iran the Muslim Brothers Hamas Hezbollah and other radical Muslim movements it is not given to negotiation and compromise as any other political conflict but is governed by absolutes and one sided perspectives Arab nationalism Islam and Zionism are the main political and religious movements taking center stage in this conflict The intractable nature of the conflict has so far defied all negotiations agreements and peace treaties All the proposed peaceful settlements have thus far remained brittle while the fundamental issues of stereotyping suspicion hatred and condescendence have remained in place unshaken This book confronts two contradictory ideologies and attempts to bridge them over

In Good Faith Scott A. Shay, 2018-09-04 Prominent atheists claim the Bible is a racist text Yet Dr Martin Luther King Jr read it daily Then again so did many ardent segregationists Some atheists claim religion serves to oppress the masses Yet the classic text of the French Revolution What is the Third Estate was written by a priest On the other hand the revolutionaries ended up banning religion What do we make of religion s confusing role in history And what of religion s relationship to science Some scientists claim that we have no free will Others argue that advances in neurobiology and physics disprove determinism As for whispering to the universe an absurd habit say the skeptics Yet prayer is a transformative practice for millions This book explores the most common atheist critiques of the Bible and religion incorporating Jewish Christian and Muslim voices The result is a fresh modern re evaluation of religion and of atheism Scott A Shay is a Co Founder and Chairman of Signature Bank and a longstanding Jewish community activist Shay started a Hebrew school an adult educational program and chaired several Jewish educational programs He is the author of Getting our Groove Back How to Energize American Jewry and has been thinking about religion reason and modernity since wondering why his parents sent him to Hebrew school

Marketing Peace Paromita Goswami, 2017-08-21 Religious terrorism accounted for 66% of all deaths from terror attacks in 2013 Using religion as a trump card for justification of violence has increased sharply since 2000 significantly overtaking political and nationalist separatist movements There has however been no serious attempt to understand how peace can be offered as an alternative product to violence if it was handled by commercial marketers If a presidential candidate sportsperson detergents or banking services can be marketed can peace be marketed too This book argues that social marketing which uses commercial marketing principles for social good may make a significant contribution to encouraging peace The book unearths the subconscious metaphorical frames utilised by Christians in their conceptualisations of Muslims in the US and vice versa through a two fold approach Firstly ethnographic field work is used to gain the trust of the community and to understand the lived in experience of community members in their natural social setting Secondly the Zaltman Metaphor Elicitation Technique ZMET is adopted as a tool to discern the metaphorical lens that Christians and Muslims use to view each other The study suggests how this metaphorical lens of framing may help in designing more effective interventions that would fundamentally alter the mechanism of contact between rival majority and minority religious groups in conflict

Perverse Feelings Suzanne Ashworth, 2022-09-23

Perverse Feelings Poe and American Masculinity examines white masculinity in Poe's fiction and the culture it represents. Poe's men are tormented by chronic illness, deviant attachments, and ugly emotions. As it analyzes these afflictions, this book illuminates the pathologies of American masculinity that emerged in a terrible history of imperialism, capitalism, racism, misogyny, and homophobia. One of its central contentions is that we can better understand a past and present American masculinity through a reckoning with its perverse feelings. More pointedly, this book asks: What does masculinity feel? What does white American masculinity feel in the first decades of nation formation? What does it feel in the crucible of its revolution, its slave system, its democracy, its nascent capitalism, and its pursuit of happiness? What feelings besiege and beleaguer Poe's men? And what can they teach us about the antagonisms of contemporary white American masculinity?

Emotions in

Conflict Eran Halperin, 2015-12-07 Social and political psychologists have attempted to reveal the reasons why individuals and societies that acknowledge that peace would improve their personal and collective well-being and are aware of the required actions needed to promote it are simply incapable of making this step forward. Some social psychologists have advocated the idea that certain societal beliefs and collective memories about the nature of the opponent, the in-group, the history, and the current state of the conflict distort the perceptions of society members and prevent them from identifying opportunities for peace. But these cognitive barriers capture only part of the picture. Could identifying the role of discrete emotions in conflicts and conflict resolution potentially provide a wide platform for developing pinpoint conflict resolution interventions? Using a vast array of primary sources, critical literature analysis, and firsthand personal experiences in various conflict zones (Middle East, Cyprus, Bosnia, and Northern Ireland), Eran Halperin introduces a new perspective on psychological barriers to peace. Halperin focuses on various emotional mechanisms that hamper peace processes even when parties face real opportunities for conflict resolution. More specifically, he explores how hatred, anger, fear, angst, hope, despair, empathy, guilt, and shame combined with various emotion regulation strategies provide emotion-based explanations for people's attitudinal and behavioral reactions to peace-related events during the ongoing process of conflict resolution. Written in a clear and accessible style, Emotions in Conflict offers a thought-provoking and pioneering insight into the role discrete intergroup emotions play in impeding as well as facilitating peace processes in intractable conflicts. This book is essential reading for those who study intractable conflicts and their resolutions and those who are interested in the real-world implication of recent theories and findings on emotion and emotion regulation.

The Dynamics of Terror Hughbank, 2011 Pathologic leaders are capable of using their power, mind manipulation skills, and unchecked

authority to manipulate and annihilate others their own people and themselves as the Nazi Fhrer Adolf Hitler the messianic reverend James Jones or Osama bin Laden the leader of the al Qaeda social movement have reminded us But what about the regular guys Can a person who in principle is like you and me become an agent of terror In the rise of the media age it is easy to forget that humankind has been subject to the darkness of terrorism for centuries In a world scarred by tragedies in locations as divergent as Oklahoma City Blacksburg London Madrid and New York finding a way to combat terrorism and acts of terror in our own time is of paramount concern Yet how do a community a culture and a world come to understand how terrorists develop How do we come to terms with the idea that most terrorists and individuals who commit acts of terror are products of the cultures that we live in rational actors who operate among us at times undetected until their actions come to their deadly end The Dynamics of Terror is a series of essays from a group of expert psychologists sociologists and military terror experts By examining the differences between the individuals who engage in terrorist activities the authors have composed a unified theory of terrorists These engaging essays will shed light into the minds of terrorists and provide new ways to identify potential aggressors before tragedy occurs
