Haunted Subjects C. Davis, 2007-01-11 Why do the dead return Do they remain part of the world of the living This book examines these questions as they emerge in areas as diverse as film Holocaust testimony and the works of Jacques Derrida Nicolas Abraham and Maria Torok The book suggests it may be as difficult for the living to get rid of the dead as it is to live without them

The Theological Turn in Contemporary Gothic Fiction Simon Marsden, 2018-09-21 This study examines theological themes and resonances in post 1970 Gothic fiction It argues that contemporary Gothic is not simply a secularised genre but rather one that engages creatively and often subversively with theological texts and traditions This creative engagement is reflected in Gothic fiction's exploration of theological concepts including sin and evil Christology and the messianic resurrection eschatology and apocalypse Through readings of fiction by Gothic and horror writers including Stephen King Joyce Carol Oates Peter Straub William Peter Blatty and others this book demonstrates that Christianity continues to haunt the Gothic imagination and that the genre's openness to the mysterious numinous and non rational opens space in which to explore religious beliefs and experiences less easily accessible to more overtly realist forms of representation The book offers a new perspective on contemporary Gothic fiction that will be of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Gothic and of the relationship between literature and religion more generally

French Orientalist Literature in Algeria, 1845-1882 Sage Goellner, 2018-03-06 This book applies the growing theoretical field of hauntology to a body of literature which has previously been examined through the lenses of Orientalism and exoticism Through a chronological study and close readings of the writings of Thophile Gautier Eugène Fromentin Gustave Flaubert and Pierre Loti the project identifies haunting echoes within the texts which demonstrate an ambivalence of attitudes towards colonialism and which undermine any claim towards a monolithic imperialist French ideology Whereas hauntological theory has been used to illuminate literature from the Francophone post colonial period it has not yet been applied to texts produced during the French colonial period The originality of this project thus lies in the application of Derridean hauntological theory to works from an earlier period each of which in one way or another addresses the theme of colonial violence By revisiting four classic works of colonial Orientalism with haunting as a principal theme this analysis provides a critical witnessing of France's violent colonization of Algeria that demonstrates France's latent anxieties about the colonial project at the time

The Modern Supernatural and the Beginnings of Cinema Murray Leeder, 2017-01-10 This study sees the nineteenth century supernatural as a significant context for cinema's first years The book takes up the familiar notion of cinema as a ghostly spectral or haunted medium and asks what made such association possible Examining the history of the projected image and supernatural displays psychical research and telepathy spirit photography and X rays the skeletons of the danse macabre and the ghostly spaces of the mind it uncovers many lost and fascinating connections The Modern Supernatural and the Beginnings of Cinema locates film's spectral affinities within a history stretching back to the beginning of screen practice and forward to the digital era In addition to examining the use of supernatural themes by pioneering filmmakers like Georges Méliès and George Albert Smith it also engages with the representations of cinema's ghostly past in Guy Maddin's recent online project Seances 2016 It is ideal for those interested in the history of cinema the study of the supernatural and the pre history of the horror film

Breaking the Silence Merilyn Moos, 2015-02-04 There has been extensive research into the impact of the Holocaust on the children of survivors who immigrated to the US and Israel But very little work in this space has looked at children whose parents fled Nazi persecution before the Holocaust Even less attention has been paid to those who ended up in Britain from Germany Austria Czechoslovakia and Hungary What was the impact on this second generation How have the lives of these ordinary people been shaped by their parents' dislocation Using a series of interviews with members of the second generation Breaking the Silence is a qualitative interdisciplinary exploration how their lives were shaped by their parents' escape from persecution It offers an insight into how the exile and fear of persecution of the parents and the deaths/murder of unknown relatives has left this generation both bereft of memories and haunted by the past

Mind the Ghost Sonja Stojanovic, 2023-01-16 Spectrality disrupts and fissures our conceptions of time unmaking and complicating binaries such as life and death presence and absence the visible and the invisible and literality and metaphor A contribution to current conversations in memory studies and spectrality studies Mind the Ghost is an experiment in reading ghosts otherwise It explores through contemporary fiction in French sites of textual haunting that take the form of names lists objects photographs and stains The book turns to Jacques Derrida and Hélène Cixous to rethink what constitutes and functions as a ghost proposing that this figure solicits readers' investment in mnemonic practices Considering the memories and legacies of violence that have marked the greater part of the twentieth century in Algeria Bosnia Croatia France and Rwanda this book traces absences disappearances and reappearances textual omissions and untimely irruptions to posit literature's power to both remember and communicate beyond the bounds of chronological time Through close readings of recent fiction by Kaouther Adimi Jakub Alikavazovic Gal Faye Jérôme Ferrari Patrick Modiano Lydie Salvayre Leïla Sebbar and Cécile Wajsbrot Mind the Ghost articulates the mechanisms through which readers themselves become haunted

Trauma and Romance in Contemporary British Literature Jean-Michel

Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2013-01-17 Drawing on a variety of theoretical approaches including trauma theory psychoanalysis genre theory narrative theory theories of temporality cultural theory and ethics this book breaks new ground in bringing together trauma and romance two categories whose collaboration has never been addressed in such a systematic and in depth way The volume shows how romance strategies have become an essential component of trauma fiction in general and traumatic realism in particular It brings to the fore the deconstructive powers of the darker type of romance and its adequacy to perform traumatic acting out and fragmentation It also zooms in on the variations on the ghost story as medium for the evocation of trans generational trauma as well as on the therapeutic drive of romance that favors a narrative presentation of the working through phase of trauma Chapters explore various acceptations and extensions of psychic trauma from the individual to the cultural analyzing narrative texts that belong in various genres from the ghost story to the misery memoir to the graphic novel The selection of primary sources allows for a review of leading contemporary British authors such as Peter Ackroyd Martin Amis Ian McEwan Salman Rushdie Graham Swift Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson and of those less canonical such as Jackie Kay Alan Moore and Dave Gibbons Justine Picardie Peter Roche and Adam Thorpe Cinematic Ghosts Murray Leeder, 2015-07-30 In 1896 Maxim Gorky declared cinema the Kingdom of Shadows In its silent ashen grey world he saw a land of spectral and ever since then cinema has had a special relationship with the haunted and the ghostly Cinematic Ghosts is the first collection devoted to this subject including fourteen new essays dedicated to exploring the many permutations of the movies phantoms Cinematic Ghosts contains essays revisiting some classic ghost films within the genres of horror The Haunting 1963 romance Portrait of Jennie 1948 comedy Beetlejuice 1988 and the art film Uncle Boonmee Who Can Recall His Past Lives 2010 as well as essays dealing with a number of films from around the world from Sweden to China Cinematic Ghosts traces the archetype of the cinematic ghost from the silent era until today offering analyses from a range of historical aesthetic and theoretical dimensions

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women's Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women's writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women's writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard Sex, Death and Resurrection in Altered Carbon Aldona Kobus, Łukasz Muniowski, 2020-02-11 The 2018 Netflix series Altered Carbon is a vital contribution to the cyberpunk renaissance among such titles as Snowpiercer or Blade Runner 2049 This collection of new essays answers the question is this increasing popularity of cyberpunk a sign of recognition of the genre's transgressive aspects such as a stark critique of capitalism or is it the opposite a sign of the genre's failure to successfully criticize modernity The contributors consider the series as taking on current issues from a critique of neoliberalism through the ethical aspects of biotechnology up to thanatology They provoke questions about what it means to be human in a world in which death does not exist Essays evaluate the surging popularity of the series and cyberpunk at large from a variety of critical perspectives shedding new light on a challenging and inventive series Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth, 2016-11-17 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth's analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia Ghost Criminology Michael Fiddler, Theo Kindynis, Travis Linnemann, 2022-01-18 The haunting effects of crime violence and death in our history memory and media spaces From Abu Ghraib and Holocaust death camps to Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School and slave plantations spaces where violent crimes have occurred can often become forever changed or haunted in the public imagination In this volume Michael Fiddler Travis Linnemann and Theo Kindynis bring together an interdisciplinary group of distinguished scholars to study this phenomenon exploring the origins theory and methodology of ghost criminology Featuring Jeff Ferrell Michelle Brown Eamon Carrabine and other prominent scholars Ghost Criminology takes us inside spaces where the worst crimes have imprinted themselves on our history memory and media spaces Contributors explore a wide range of these hauntological topics from a criminological perspective including the excavation of graffiti in the London underground the phantom of Robert E Lee in Charlottesville VA during the 2017 riots and the ghostly evidentiary traces of crime in motel rooms Ultimately Fiddler Kindynis and Linnemann offer ghost criminology as another way of seeing and better understanding the lingering impact of violence oppression and history in today s world Ghost Criminology curates cutting edge research to break exciting new terrain Writing Postcolonial France Fiona

Barclay,2011-09-16 This book examines the way in which France has failed to come to terms with the end of its empire and is now haunted by the legacy of its colonial relationship with North Africa It examines the form assumed by the ghosts of the past in fiction from a range of genres travel writing detective fiction life writing historical fiction women s writing produced within metropolitan France and assesses whether moments of haunting may in fact open up possibilities for a renewed relational structure of cultural memory By viewing metropolitan France through the prism of its relationship with its former colonies in North Africa the book maps the complexities of contemporary France demonstrating an emerging postcoloniality within France itself Haunting Modernisms Matt Foley,2017-11-11 This book is about haunting in modernist literature

Phantom Images Catherine Smale, 2013 Ghosts have made an unexpected reappearance in German literature since 1989 Catherine Smale reads this as symptomatic of writers attempts to renegotiate their personal and collective identity in the wake of German reunification Focusing on two major authors from the former GDR Christa Wolf and Irina Liebmann Smale examines the ways in which their work adopts notions of haunting in its creative engagement with the double legacy of Socialism and National Socialism The ghost has long been regarded as a vehicle for making manifest taboo or unauthorized memories However Smale goes further demonstrating how the human subject is destabilized by the return of the phantom and is itself rendered insecure and spectral Drawing on a wide range of theoretical reference from the psychoanalytic concept of intergenerational phantoms to Derridean hauntology Smale s study highlights the particular challenge which Wolf and Liebmann pose to the familiar understanding of how German writers have confronted their country s troublesome past Catherine Smale is Lecturer in German at King s College London
