

H.P. LOVECRAFT ILLUSTRATED
THE HAUNTER OF THE DARK and other Grotesque Fictions

"A terrific book. The strange old man from Providence would have been proud of it!"

Mark Gatton

"I have not seen in many a long while of a reader so close the kind of sustained dedication to the parchment pen and ink work put to hand by John Coulthart. It's a striking example of the want to create and the desire to shock the sensibilities of an audience with a phenomenal subject linked to a subtle and phenomenological talent."

Bruce Brown

H.P. Lovecraft is the most important and influential horror writer of the twentieth century. His stories of cosmic nightmare and cosmic horror have drawn praise from William S. Burroughs, Agatha Christie and Jorge Luis Borges and continue to inspire new generations of writers and artists.

John Coulthart is one of H.P. Lovecraft's most talented interpreters. As an artist for David Brin's Lord Dunsany series, his work has been described as 'shocking . . . lurid', 'terrifying' and 'brilliant' and has been lauded in the grounds of obscurity by British art critics.

This collection presents all of Coulthart's Lovecraft-inspired work from the past decade including two complete comic book adaptations: The Master of the Dark and The God of Cthulhu—over forty pages of drawings and paintings plus selections from the commercial Lord Dunsany series Lord Dunsany and Dunsany, which have evoked Lovecraftian imagery in Vladimir Putin.

Material specially created for this volume includes The Great Old One, a tribute to Lovecraft's gods with accompanying illustrations by artist Alan Moore.
