Makaton Signs For My Family:

Pupil, Teacher and Family Voice in Educational Institutions Janice Wearmouth, Andrew Goodwyn, 2019-03-14

Taking a novel approach to the concept of voice within education systems this insightful text considers the extent to which the values opinions beliefs and perspectives of pupils families teachers and members of senior management are heard in educational settings and explores what can be learned from integrating their views and opinions in decision making processes Pupil Teacher and Family Voice in Educational Institutions traces the historical and legal developments which have heralded an increased appreciation of individuals perspectives in key decision making processes Chapters consider how various parties can be encouraged to voice their opinions and beliefs and address the issues and challenges which may face institutions as they seek to create an atmosphere of open and active consultation and engagement Drawing on evidence based research case studies and personal accounts chapters reflect upon the concept of voice in diverse settings and acknowledge the sometimes significant divergence between the intended and actual extent to which such opinions beliefs and perspectives are reflected in day to day practice Offering in depth exploration of the concept of voice and the benefits implications challenges and practicalities associated with it this text will be of interest to future and in service teachers educational researchers and policy makers

The Inclusive Early Years Educator Ann Lowe, Stephen Kilgour, 2024-07-11 All young children are entitled to high quality experiences when it comes to their education Too often when we meet a child who has learning differences or a disability our instinct is to sound the alarm bells and call for additional support The Inclusive Early Years Educator is a resource that encourages us to change our mindset when it comes to children with learning differences and disabilities considering areas where our provision needs adjustment in order to be truly inclusive This toolkit aims to ensure all children have the best possible chance of making progress by supporting practitioners to identify all children s strengths and to celebrate all aspects of individual children s learning The book Provides a holistic picture of a child s learning considering an array of reflective opportunities while always keeping the child at the centre of our thoughts Includes a wealth of real life case studies and worked examples Features a diverse range of contributions from early years professionals as well as the voices of parents Contains printable forms to encourage and consolidate reflections throughout the book Is full of signposting and links to further resources and reading making it an essential guide for the early years Some of the self reflections will be challenging and ask us to think about aspects of our practice we may never have previously considered With accessible guidance and strategies to advocate a change in practice based on lived experience research The Inclusive Early Years Educator will enable the reader to become an ally for championing neurodiversity affirming practice and true inclusion in early years education
