The Civic Mission of Museums Anthony

Pennay,2020-12-15 Museums have long sought to maintain relevance in the daily lives of their communities Over the past several decades museums have shifted as a field from a focus on collections to a focus on connecting with audiences More recently museums must confront political polarization and a decreasing sense of trust in nearly every public institution As a result few institutions are better positioned to serve the country than museums In fact polls show that museums rank among the most trusted institutions in the country regardless of political belief During tumultuous times this trust means that museums have a unique and important responsibility to fulfill their civic mission A century ago John Cotton Dana argued that the most important thing a museum can do is produce a public benefit The Civic Mission of Museums argues that museums play an essential role in the cultivation of engaged and informed citizens The book outlines a spectrum of civic learning that includes civic knowledge civic mindset civic skillset and civic action It offers concrete examples of impactful civic programming exhibits and public engagement from a diverse set of museums It ends with a practical toolkit gleaned from across the country for museum professionals to utilize The Report: Gabon 2013 Oxford Business Group,2013-10-07 In recent years the country has sought to accelerate economic diversification emphasising growth in its industrial agricultural and service sectors The second biggest economy of the Economic and Monetary Community of Central Africa which the country is chairing in 2013 Gabon has a population of 1 6m according to the most recent data available from the World Bank The country benefits from a wide base of natural resources including large mineral deposits and timber as well as arable land all of which have helped feed its export revenues and boost headline indicators However it is the oil and gas sector that has been the dominant sector with the country s onshore and offshore blocks making it the fifth largest producer on the continent Production has been maturing recently prompting the search to shift to deep offshore blocks but also encouraging greater diversification through the government s Gabon Emergent strategy which looks to channel capital and activity into key sectors such as tourism and manufacturing 2012-2013 College Admissions Data Sourcebook Southeast Edition ,
