Turkey's Nuclear Future Sinan Ülgen, George Perkovich, 2015-03-24 Turkey with a robust modern economy and growing energy needs is pursuing a switch to nuclear power But that shift is occurring in an environment fraught with security challenges Turkey borders Iraq Syria and Iran all states with nuclear or WMD ambitions or capabilities As a NATO member Turkey also hosts U S nuclear bombs on its territory although some question the durability of this relationship This dynamic has naturally led to speculation that Turkish leaders might someday consider moving beyond a civilian course to develop nuclear weapons Yet there has been remarkably little informed analysis and debate on Turkey s nuclear future either within the country or in broader international society This volume explores the current status and trajectory of Turkey s nuclear program adding historical perspective analytical rigor and strategic insight

24-Hour Cities Hugh F. Kelly, 2016-07-15 Winner of the Gold Award in the Tenth Annual Robert Bruss Real Estate Book Competition 24 Hour Cities is the very first full length book about America s cities that never sleep Over the last fifty years the nation s top live work play cities have proven themselves more than just vibrant urban environments for the elite They are attracting a cross section of the population from across the U S and are preferred destinations for immigrants of all income strata This is creating a virtuous circle wherein economic growth enhances property values stronger real estate markets sustain more reliable tax bases and solid municipal revenues pay for better services that further attract businesses and talented individuals Yet just a generation ago cities like New York Boston Washington San Francisco and Miami were broke financially and physically scarred by violence and prime examples of urban dysfunction How did the turnaround happen And why are other cities still stuck with the hollow downtowns and sprawling suburbs that make for a 9 to 5 urban configuration Hugh Kelly s cross disciplinary research identifies the ingredients of success and the recipe that puts them together

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 4 , 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Embracing Quality Assurance Educational Standards and Quality Assurance Evaluating Educational Access and Why Assessment It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic
