C. S. Lewis. Lorene Duquin, an experienced grief counselor, was no stranger to understanding and explaining grief and had helped many people work through it. But when she lost her mother, she found herself living in an entirely new space. Grieving the Loss of a Loved One contains 52 powerful, one-page meditations that will help you work through the various aspects of grieving as they did for Lorene herself. The meditations are wide-ranging; they are deeply personal but yet they address the emotional, physical, mental, spiritual, and social aspects of grief. Rooted in prayer, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and conveying important life lessons, each meditation features a quote from a well-known figure that speaks to the meditation. A brief reflection that expands upon the topic at hand. A prayer. Sidebar with a timely quote or anecdote. Walk hand in hand with Lorene and experience the gift of a companion who can walk this painful walk at your side through this unknown territory where each passing day seems to reveal a new dimension of pain, loss, confusion, but eventually transforms to healing and peace. Catholic and Mourning a Loss Maureen O'Brien, OP, 2014-01-15 5 Challenges Our ability to work through the grieving process will be tested Our life will be changed because of our loss Our ability to function will be questioned Our dreams for the future may have to be altered We will question our reliance on other and even on God 5 Opportunities We can learn to use the gifts that working through grief has offered us We can realize that change can be an opportunity for newness and growth We can explore the new found strength that can be ours We can go beyond ourselves as we face the future We will be able to let go and let God be in control available information at this time Catholics, Conflicts and Choices Angela Coco,2014-09-12 Many Catholics today are disenchanted with the Church s continuing distrust of women and laity But despite this widespread dissatisfaction traditional power relations have hardly changed over the last century Catholics Conflicts and Choices presents detailed interviews with lay people priests Sisters and Christian Brothers each discussing their personal struggles with church teachings and practices The conversations are selected to illustrate different experiences of power relations particularly different aspects of gender dynamics within the organisational structures of the Church The interviews are examined within a framework of feminist sociological and psychological theory Catholics Conflicts and Choices reveals how despite a long history of challenging official notions of authority and obedience and assumptions about intimate relationships there is little potential for change if the established power relations of the Church are not confronted A Well-Built Faith Joe Paprocki,2010-06 Nail down the facts tear down the barriers The Catechism of the Catholic Church is over nine hundred pages long so it comes as no surprise that many Catholics think of their faith as complex and certainly too complex to share with others A Well Built Faith cleverly developed around a construction theme makes it easy and flat out fun for any Catholic to know what they believe and to feel confident in sharing those beliefs with others The eighteen chapter book at times profound at times humorous always practical follows the structure of the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church Creed Sacraments Morality and Prayer Taking otherwise difficult topics about the Catholic faith and making them accessible and relevant to the lives of average Catholics acclaimed author and teacher Joe Paprocki does so in a way that never compromises the rich depth of Catholic teaching and tradition From the Trinity to the seven sacraments from the Ten Commandments to the Lord s Prayer A Well Built Faith will help Catholics nail down the facts of the faith and tear down the barriers keeping them from sharing their beliefs with others Helping Grieving People J.
