Dinner at Your Door Alex Davis,Diana Ellis,Andy Remeis,2008 We love to cook But

every night No way On the other hand we don't want to eat out or have frozen pizza On the nights we don't cook we want something delicious a balanced meal with quality ingredients Come to think of it what we really want are home cooked meals made by somebody else and delivered Welcome to co op cooking possibly the best idea since Pyrex with a lid With the plan set up by Dinner at the Door you cook one fabulous dinner a week and have two or three equally sensational meals delivered to your door hot and ready to eat If you love to cook but the pressure of doing it every night gets you down a dinner co op is for you Instead of slamming together three or four 30 minute dinners a week you can take your time crafting one superb weeknight meal and enjoy receiving the other meals automatically In Dinner at the Door you get the information you need to set up your own dinner co op along with more than eighty recipes especially developed for co op cooking These dishes offer the perfect starting point for meals that can be made ahead of time that travel well and that won't dry out after drop off The Dinner at the Door takes your average weeknight dinner from a grind to gourmet Formally trained in culinary arts Andy Remeis has over nine years experience in the restaurant world and cooks with uncommon exuberance and a try anything attitude She has a strong commitment to providing healthy food for her family and has organized and participated in dinner co ops since 2001 Living in California during Alice Waters influence Diana Ellis served as managing chef of UC Davis vegetarian line where she elevated meal plan food into something marvelous An energetic Junior High Science teacher and expert gardener Diana feeds her dinner co op families from her own vegetable garden and has been in dinner co ops since 1999 A writer a cook and a bit of an entertainer Alex Davis started at PBS and NPR stations in Atlanta Senior copywriter at a successful Northwest advertising agency Alex develops marketing strategies and winning copy for companies such as HP and Albertson's markets Her writing has been recognized by the national ADDY awards and Alex's client work has appeared in Bon Appetit People Business Week and Sunset Her co op has been running since 2003 We the Eaters Ellen Gustafson, 2014-05-20 The implausible truth Over one billion people in the world are hungry and over one billion are overweight Far from complete opposites hunger and obesity are in fact different manifestations of the same problem It's increasingly difficult to find and eat nutritious food By examining the global industrial food system using the deceptively simple template of a classic American dinner We the Eaters not only outlines the root causes of this bizarre and troubling dichotomy but also provides a blueprint of actionable solutions solutions that could start with changing out just a single item on your plate From your burger to your soda Gustafson unpacks how even the hyperlocal can cause worldwide ripples For instance American agricultural policy promoting corn and soybeans in beef farming means we feed more to cows than to hungry people This is compounded by the environmental cost of factory livestock farming rising obesity rates and the false economics of unhealthfully high meat consumption The answer Eat a hamburger just make it a smaller sustainably raised grass fed one Gustafson a young entrepreneur foreign policy expert and food policy advocate delivers a wake up call that will inspire even the most passive reader to take action We can love our food and our country while being better stewards of our system and our health We the Eaters is nothing short of a manifesto If we change dinner we really can change the world
