32 Ways to Be a Champion in Business Earvin "Magic" Johnson, 2008-11-18 As a young man Earvin Magic Johnson admired his father and other small town entrepreneurs who created jobs and served as leaders in his Midwestern community He worked for them watched them and his interest in building communities through economic development grew even while his basketball career flourished His fame as an NBA star gave him access to some of the most successful business leaders in the country It was Earvin's own entrepreneurial spirit that inspired them to serve as his mentors Earvin made the transition from great athlete to greater entrepreneur through hard work and by avidly pursuing opportunities He recognized that densely populated urban communities were ripe for commercial and residential development He partnered with major brands like Starbucks 24 Hour Fitness and T G I Friday's to lead a major economic push in these communities The success of his businesses proved that ethnically diverse urban residents would welcome and support major brands if given the opportunity Earvin continues to be a leader of urban economic development that provides jobs goods and a new spirit of community 32 Ways to Be a Champion in Business will inspire and enlighten readers who wish to make a similar impact with their careers and business endeavors

Strong Brands, Strong Relationships Susan Fournier, Michael J Breazeale, Jill Avery, 2015-06-12 From the editor team of the ground breaking Consumer Brand Relationships Theory and Practice comes this new volume Strong Brands Strong Relationships is a collection of innovative research and management insights that build upon the foundations of the first book but takes the study of brand relationships outside of traditional realms by applying new theoretical frameworks and considering new contexts The result is an expanded and better informed account of people's relationships with brands and a demonstration of the important and timely implications of this evolving sub discipline A range of different brand relationship environments are explored in the collection including online digital spaces consumer collectives global brands luxury brands branding in terrorist organizations and the brand relationships of men and transient consumers This book attends to relationship endings as well as their beginnings providing a full life cycle perspective While the first volume focused on positive relationship benefits this collection explores dysfunctional dynamics adversarial and politically charged relationships and those that are harmful to well being Evocative constructs are leveraged including secrets betrayals anthropomorphism lying infidelity retaliation and bereavement The curated collection provides both a deeper theoretical understanding of brand relationship phenomena and ideas for practical application from experiments and execution in commercial practice Strong Brands Strong Relationships will be the perfect read for marketing faculty and graduate students interested in branding dynamics as well as managers responsible for stewarding brands
