Guardian Of The Harvest Capture And Rebirth:

The Promise of Hope Kofi Awoonor, 2014-03-01 Kofi Awoonor one of Ghana's most accomplished poets had for almost half a century committed himself to teaching political engagement and the literary arts. The one constant that guided and shaped his many occupations and roles in life was poetry. The Promise of Hope is a beautifully edited collection of some of Awoonor's most arresting work spanning almost fifty years. Selected and edited by Awoonor's friend and colleague Kofi Anyidoho himself a prominent poet and academic in Ghana. The Promise of Hope contains much of Awoonor's most recent unpublished poetry along with many of his anthologized and classic poems. This engaging volume serves as a fitting contribution to the inaugural cohort of books in the African Poetry Book Series.

The Jesus Dialogues Brennan R. Hill, 2015-03-06 The Jesus Dialogues is a unique book. There is no other book that uses this interesting dialogue method to contrast and compare such an extensive number of religions. In each chapter Jesus sits down with both women and men religious founders and leaders and talks with them on an equal basis about religious perspectives past and present. The book is a thorough overview of Christianity compared and contrasted with eight other religions as well as selected indigenous religions. A final chapter deals with the why and how of interfaith dialogue which is so needed in today's diverse and global society. This book reflects the author's six decades of study and teaching in the areas of Christianity and world religions. It is based on sound scholarship, worldwide travel and experience in interfaith dialogue. The Jesus Dialogues demonstrates that there is truth and a way to ultimacy in all religions. At the same time listening in on these conversations reveals significant differences among religions. These dialogues help one realize that Gandhi was right when he said that we must listen to all religions in order to obtain just a glimpse of the divine.

Genji & Heike

,1994-06-01 The Tale of Genji and The Tale of the Heike are the two major works of classical Japanese prose The complete versions of both works are too long to be taught in one term and this abridgement answers the need for a one volume edition of both works suitable for use in survey courses in classical Japanese literature or world literature in translation and by the general reader daunted by the complete works The translator has selected representative portions of the two texts with a view to shaping the abridgments into coherent aesthetically acceptable wholes Often called the world's earliest novel The Tale of Genji by Murasaki Shikibu is a poetic evocation of aristocratic life in eleventh century Japan a period of brilliant cultural efflorescence This new translation focuses on important events in the life of its main character Genji It traces the full length of Genji's relationship with Murasaki the deepest and most enduring of his emotional attachments and contains all or parts of 10 of the 41 chapters in which Genji figures including the Broom Tree chapter which provides a reprise of the themes of the book In romanticized but essentially truthful fashion The Tale of the Heike describes the late twelfth century political intrigues and battlefield clashes that led to the eclipse of the Kyoto court and the establishment of a military government by the rival Minamoto Genji clan Its underlying theme the evanescence of worldly things echoes some of the concerns of the Genji but its language preserves many traces of oral composition and its vigor and expansiveness contrast sharply with the pensive elegant tone of the Genji The selections of the Heike about 40 percent of the work are taken from the translator's complete edition which received great acclaim this version of the Heike is superb and indeed reveals to English language readers for the first time the full scope grandeur and literary richness of the work Journal of Asian Studies

For both the Genji and the Heike abridgments the translator has provided introductions headnote summaries and other supplementary materials designed to help readers follow the sometimes confused story lines and keep the characters straight The book also includes an appendix a glossary a bibliography and two maps Guardian, 1954 How to Make White Magic Michael Chinery, 2004 The Spectator, 1872 Introduction to World Religions Christopher Partridge, 2018-07-01

Justice Ernest Emenyonu, 2014 This special issue focuses on literary texts by African writers in which the protagonist returns to his/her original or ancestral home in Africa from other parts of the world. Ideas of return, intentional and actual, have been a consistent feature of the literature of Africa and the African diaspora from Equiano's autobiography in 1789 to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's 2013 novel Americanah. African literature has represented returnees in a range of locations and dislocations, including having a sense of belonging, being alienated in a country they can no longer recognize or experiencing a multiple sense of place. Contributors writing on literature from the 1970s to the present examine the extent to which the original place can be reclaimed with or without renegotiations of home. Articles on Nuruddin Farah, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Pedestal Hollist, Ayi Kwei Armah, Dinaw Mengestu, Benjamin Kwakye. Interview with Tendai Huchu. Featured Articles by Bernth Lindfors, Eustace Palmer, Helen Chukwuma. Literary supplement: four poems by Tsitsi Ella Jaji. Black World/Negro Digest, 1974-09. Founded in 1943, Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing. During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement, Negro Digest/Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement. Manners and Customs of Mankind John Alexander Hammerton, 1939. The Flaming Sword, 1918. The Church of England magazine [afterw.] The Church of England and Lambeth magazine, 1837. The Christian Union, 1888. Spell, Charms and White Magic Raje Airey, 2006 This practical book clearly outlines all that is required to practise white magic. Here you can learn how to use creative visualisation to meet your guardian angel or create a sphere of protection using incense and sacred herbs; how to call on the powers of the four seasons, spirit guardians and cosmic forces to add power and influence to magical work. Magic rituals are pictured in progress, step by step. The book gives help and advice on the magical tools that are needed for the practice of modern white magic, including robes, symbols of the four elements, candles, incense, herbs and spices, the correspondences of plants, flowers and trees. Inspire Catholic Bible NLT Large Print Tyndale, 2020-10-20 The Inspire Catholic Bible NLT Large Print features over 450 beautiful Scripture line art illustrations to color, plus two and a half inch wide lightly ruled margins with extra space to write notes and reflections or to draw and create original art. It is a favorite edition for Catholic Bible journaling. The Inspire Catholic Bible's generous large print, nearly 11 point font, is larger and more readable than most other journaling Bible fonts, and the high quality white Bible paper is great for colorers and creative Bible journalers of all skill levels. The New Living Translation text used in the Inspire Catholic Bible has been approved by the Catholic Church for reading and study and includes the official Imprimatur. The Holy Bible, New Living Translation, communicates God's Word powerfully to all who read it, and Inspire is a wonderful legacy Bible for readers to record their faith journey. Inspire Catholic Bible is available in regular size and large print editions.
