

The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the world is now living in urban areas.
 This is a result of the process of urbanization, which has been going on since the beginning of the 20th century. The second factor is the increasing demand for energy and raw materials, which has led to the depletion of natural resources.
 The third factor is the growing awareness of the need to protect the environment, which has led to the development of environmental laws and regulations.

These factors have led to the development of a new approach to development, known as sustainable development. This approach seeks to meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

The following are the main
