Investment Arbitration Andrés Eduardo Alvarado-Garzón, 2023-12-07 This book critically analyses the availability of environmental counterclaims in investment arbitration presented by the respondent host state against the claimant investor It starts from the premise that the conflicting relation between investment law and environmental protection cannot always be avoided Yet the instrument of environmental counterclaims in investment arbitration might alleviate such relation Throughout its chapters this book addresses the questions about the societal and practical relevance of seeking redress for environmental damage in investment arbitration the functioning of such instrument both in contract based and treaty based investment arbitration the suitability of arbitral tribunals to rule upon environmental issues and the kind of environmental damages that could be redressed Most importantly by deconstructing the requirements of jurisdiction connection between main claim and counterclaim and cause of action this book provides the tools for there conceptualisation of the instrument of counterclaims with the hope of harnessing its utility to achieve appropriate redress for environmental damages caused by foreign investors

Research Handbook on International Procedural Law Joanna Gomula,Stephan Wittich,Markus Stemeseder,2024-06-05 This comprehensive Research Handbook provides a detailed exploration of the principles and rules that impact the procedures and operation of international courts and tribunals Within this framework leading experts examine how the evolution of procedural rules and concepts has given rise to a distinct body of rules known as international procedural law

Sustainable Development in EU Foreign Investment Law Stefanie Schacherer,2021-08-24 In Sustainable Development in EU Foreign Investment Law Stefanie Schacherer offers an account of the legal effects of sustainable development within the EU s international investment policy and global investment governance The author provides a clear assessment of how the EU contributes to the ongoing debate on sustainable development integration in international investment agreements By analysing the EU s post Lisbon treaty practice the author critically assesses to what extent the EU has managed to operationalise a sustainable development driven foreign investment policy

The Prevention Principle in International Environmental Law Leslie-Anne Duvic-Paoli,2018-05-31 Prevention is recognized as a cornerstone of international environmental law but this principle remains abstract and elusive in terms of exactly what is required of states to prevent environmental harm In this illuminating work Leslie Anne Duvic Paoli addresses this issue by offering a systematic comprehensive assessment in which she clarifies the rationale content and scope of the prevention principle while also placing it in a wider legal context The book offers a detailed analysis of treaty law custom codification works and case law before culminating in a conceptualization of prevention based on three definitional traits 1 Its anticipatory rationale 2 Its due diligence content and 3 Its wide spatial scope to protect the environment as a whole This book should be read by anyone seeking to understand the evolving principle of prevention in international environmental law and how it increasingly shares common ground with reparation in the arena of compliance control
