The Penguin Book of Dutch Short Stories Joost Zwagerman, 2016-09-29 The stories here will provoke delight and impress Joost Zwagerman's selection forms a fascinating guidebook to a landscape you'll surely want to wander in again Clare Lowden TLS There is a lot of northern European melancholy in the collection though often tinged with wry humour an excellent book Jonathan Gibbs Minor Literatures We were kids but good kids If I may say so myself We're much smarter now so smart it's pathetic Except for Bavink who went crazy A husband forms gruesome plans for his new fridge a government employee has a haunting experience on his commute home prisoners serve as entertainment for wealthy party guests an army officer suffers a monstrous tropical illness These short stories contain some of the most groundbreaking and innovative writing in Dutch literature from 1915 to the present day with most pieces appearing here in English for the first time Blending unforgettable snapshots of the realities of everyday life with surrealism fantasy and subversion this collection shows Dutch writing to be an integral part of world literary history Joost Zwagerman 1963 2015 was a novelist poet essayist and editor of several anthologies He started his career as a writer with bestselling novels describing the atmosphere of the 1980s and 1990s such as Gimmick 1988 and False Light 1991 In later years he concentrated on writing essays notably on pop culture and visual arts and poetry Suicide was the theme of the novel Six Stars 2002 He took his own life just after having published a new collection of essays on art The Museum of Light The Cinema of the Low Countries Ernest Mathijs, 2004 Films from the Netherlands Belgium and Luxembourg have long been regarded as isolated texts The Cinema of the Low Countries points to the interconnectedness between these national cinemas from the point of view of genre language and format and their local and international importance by explicitly focusing on 24 key feature films and documentaries from the region Building on each film's relationship with its particular cultural context this volume presents twenty four specially commissioned essays that explore the particular significance and influence of a wide range of exemplary films Covering the work of internationally acclaimed directors such as Joris Ivens Henri Stock Paul Verhoeven and the Dardenne Brothers and featuring the films Turkish Delight The Vanishing Daughters of Darkness Rosetta Soldiers of Orange and Man Bites Dog this collection offers an original approach to the appreciation of a diverse and increasingly important regional cinema

Spirit of Resistance Jeroen Dewulf, 2010 The first book to offer a complete story of the extraordinary proliferation of Dutch clandestine literature under the Nazi occupation Clandestine literature was published in all countries under Nazi occupation but nowhere else did it flourish as it did in the Netherlands This raises important questions What was the content of this literature What were the risks of writing printing selling and buying it And why the Netherlands Traditionally the combative Dutch spirit of resistance has been cited a reaction not only to German oppression but to German propaganda while the Germans hoped to build bonds with their Germanic Dutch brothers clandestine literature insisted on their incompatibility However when reading clandestine literature one should not forget that this spirit of resistance came rather late and did not prevent the transportation of seventy three percent of the Netherlands Jewish population to Nazi death camps the largest percentage in Western Europe The Dutch case is complex while the country proved to be remarkably resistant to Nazi propaganda little was done to prevent the actual execution of Nazi policies The complete story of Dutch clandestine literature therefore combines resistance and complicity victory and defeat pride and shame Jeroen Dewulf is Queen Beatrix Professor of Dutch Studies in the Department of German at the University of California Berkeley

The Apollonian Clockwork Louis Andriessen, Elmer Schönberger, 2025-10-01 I think my music deserves to be considered as a whole Igor Stravinsky remarked at the end of a long and restless career and that is exactly what the authors of The Apollonian Clockwork do In 1982 convinced that there is no essential difference between early and late Stravinsky Louis Andriessen and Elmer Sch nberger were the first to write a monograph on the composer which radically breaks with the habit of dividing his works into Russian neoclassical and serial In an essay which continually shifts in its approach style and perspective the authors elaborate on their insight that a single immutable compositional attitude underlies the whole of Stravinsky s oeuvre By this token the book not only offers an analysis of the composer s protean work and artistry but takes example by it as well The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble,2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Learn to speak and write Dutch in 30 days YouGuide Ltd,2023-12-12 The Low Countries Margriet Bruijn Lacy,Margriet Lacy-Bruijn,1990-02-28 The diverse topics of the articles in this volume represent many disciplines and range chronologically from the Middle Ages to the most recent years Topics include literature political science history art history language sociology and civilization Co published with the American Association for Netherlandic Studies Images of Occupation in Dutch Film Wendy Burke,2025-10-01 The German occupation of the Netherlands during World War II left a lasting mark on Dutch memory and culture This book is the first to explore depictions of that period in films made a generation later between 1962 and 1986 As Dutch public opinion towards the war altered over the postwar decades the historical trajectory of Dutch recovery and reconstruction political economic and most complicated of all psychological came to be revealed often unconsciously in the films of the period Reappraising the History of the Jews in the Netherlands Hans Blom,David J. Wertheim,Hetty Berg,Bart T. Wallet,2021-09-15 The two decades since the last authoritative general history of Dutch Jews was published have seen such substantial developments in historical understanding that new assessment has become an imperative This volume offers an indispensable survey from a contemporary viewpoint that reflects the new preoccupations of European historiography and allows the history of Dutch Jewry to be more integrated with that of other European Jewish histories Historians from both older and newer generations shed significant light on all eras providing fresh detail that reflects changed emphases and perspectives In addition to such traditional subjects as the Jewish community s relationship with the wider society and its internal structure its leaders and its international affiliations new topics explored include the socio economic aspects of Dutch Jewish life seen in the context of the integration of minorities more widely a reassessment of the Holocaust years and consideration of the place of Holocaust memorialization in community life and the impact of multiculturalist currents on Jews and Jewish politics Memory studies diaspora studies postcolonial studies and digital humanities all play their part in providing the fullest possible picture This wide ranging scholarship is complemented by a generous plate section with eighty fully captioned colour illustrations Translated by David McKay Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars,Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Uitgelezen 21 A. Bosboom,1974

Long Shadows Petra Rau, 2016-05-31 Few countries attribute as much importance to the Second World War and its memory as Britain arguably nowhere else has this conflict developed such longevity in cultural memory and retained such presence in contemporary culture Long Shadows is about how literature and film have helped shape this process in Britain More precisely the essays collected here suggest that this is a continuous work in progress subject to transgenerational revisions political expediencies commercial considerations and the vicissitudes of popular taste It would indeed be more accurate to speak of the meanings plural that the war has been given at various moments in British cultural life These semantic variations and fluctuations in cultural import are rooted in the specificity of the British war experience in the political aftermath of the war in Europe and in its significance for Britain's postwar position on the global stage In other words the books and films discussed in these essays respond to how the war has been interpreted and remembered what is at stake is the way in which the war has been emplotted as a hegemonic cultural narrative about Britain The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008
