Hassel Smith Paintings 1937 1997:

Hassel Smith Hassel Smith, 2012 This book on the Abstract Expressionist painter Hassel Smith illustrates all periods of the artist's many faceted career. Considered by critics as a West Coast underground legend, Hassel Smith was an influential member of the experimental school of artists that emerged from post World War II California. Together with Clyfford Still, Mark Rothko, and Richard Diebenkorn, Smith made his name at the California School of Fine Arts, now the San Francisco Art Institute, and from 1950 until the mid 1960s with successful exhibitions in Europe and on both coasts of the US. While his breakthrough paintings are characterized by their wildly vibrant brushstrokes and explosions of color, Smith was equally adept in a more restrained style, producing in later years the magisterial sequence of measured abstractions. As an initial burst of fame subsided, Smith continued to paint with unwavering energy. The result is a robust and dynamic body of work that reflects Smith's persistent curiosity and the breadth of his inquiry into the possibilities of painting. Long awaited by followers of the innovative art of the American Far West, this volume presents a full appreciation of Smith's achievement.

Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost, some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of deaccessioning, mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works, including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution, this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference, one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting. David Park: A Retrospective Janet Bishop, 2019-05-28 This generously illustrated volume is the first comprehensive publication devoted to the powerfully expressive work of David Park, 1911-60. Best known as the founder of Bay Area Figurative art, Park moved from Boston to California at the age of seventeen and spent most of his adult life in and around San Francisco. In the immediate postwar years, like many avant garde American artists, he engaged with Abstract Expressionism and painted non objectively. In a moment of passion in 1949, he made the radical decision to abandon nearly all of his abstract canvases at the Berkeley city dump and return to the human figure, in so doing marking the beginning of the Bay Area Figurative movement. The astonishingly powerful paintings he made in the decade that followed brought together his long held interest in classic subjects such as portraiture, domestic interiors, musicians, rowers, and bathers, with lush gestural paint handling and an extraordinary sense of color. In 1958-59, Park reached his expressive peak, reveling in the sensuous qualities of paint to create intensely physical, psychologically charged, and deeply felt canvases. This fertile period cut short by illness in 1960, Park transferred his creative energy to other mediums when he could no longer work on canvas In the last months of his life bedridden he produced an extraordinary thirty foot long felt tip pen scroll and a poignant series of gouaches Published to accompany the first major museum exhibition of Park s work in more than thirty years David Park A Retrospective traces the full arc of the artist s career from his early social realist and cubist inspired efforts of the 1930s to his mature figurative paintings of the 1950s and his astounding final works on paper An overview of Park s full body of work by Janet Bishop SFMOMA s Thomas Weisel Family Curator of Painting and Sculpture will be joined by approximately ninety full color plates of paintings and works on paper an essay by Tara McDowell on the figure drawing sessions held by Park Richard Diebenkorn Elmer Bischoff Frank Lobdell and others in their studios starting in 1953 short essays on Park s scroll his gouaches and the portraits that Imogen Cunningham and Park made of each other and an illustrated chronology Published in association with the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art Exhibition schedule Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth June 2 September 8 2019 Kalamazoo Institute of Arts December 21 2019 March 15 2020 San Francisco Museum of Modern Art April 11 September 7 2020 American Abstract Expressionism of the 1950s Marika Herskovic,2003 A unique book presents Art s main stream between 1950 and1959 in New York and across the US regardless of race gender or ethnic origin The Complete Soldier David R.
