place of both horror and happiness The words within these pages are unreserved unrestrained unapologetic and at times they are quite raw

Yeats and Violence Michael Wood, 2010-06-24 The night can sweat with terror as before We pieced our thoughts into philosophy And planned to bring the world under a rule Who are but weasels fighting in a hole W B Yeats Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen This is a book about how poetry seen through the instance of a single poem seeks to make sense of a turbulent and dangerous world Poetry must introduce order and shape where there is none and also in certain crucial cases remain faithful to the disorder and shapelessness of experience Many poems manage the first of these tasks very few manage both W B Yeats Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen written and first published in 1921 is one of them It is a work which asks what happens when what is taken to be civilization crumbles What apocalyptic events wait in the wings What are history's victims and executors to do except mock and mourn Successive chapters investigate the six parts of the poem connecting them to Yeats broader poetic practice his interest in the occult and his changing vision of Irish nationalism to the work of other poets Irish English Russian German and to Irish and European history between 1916 the date of the Easter Uprising in Dublin and 1923 the date of the end of the Irish Civil War Theoretical considerations of the shape and meaning of violence both political and religious link the chapters to each other

Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09-01 Using conversations observations and reflections psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love violence and masculinity This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele's meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender intimacy and power in the context of the human need for love and care While unsparing in his analysis of men's inner lives Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender sexuality and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised so our ideas about masculinity and men's and boys capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve

Hating Girls, 2022-02-22 Hating Girls is a collection of cutting edge essays addressing the pervasive problem of misogyny from an intersectional framework particularly focused on identities of gender race class sexuality and religion Scholars activist reformers and social justice practitioners offer multiple perspectives of the misogyny that dominates our culture providing both macro views as well as case studies in the United States This interdisciplinary analysis exposes the destructive oppressive beliefs and practices inherent in our society and offers a progressive equitable way forward Contributors are Portia Allie Turco Mary Sue Barnett Melissa Brennan Angela Cowser Diane Dougherty Dorislee Gilbert Kristi Gray Tammy Hatfield Sarah E Johansson Sandy Phillips Kirkham Francoise Knox Kazimierczuk Debra Meyers Donna Pollard Meredith Shockley Smith Tara M Tuttle Johanna W H van Wijk Bos and Stephanie A Welsh Modernism and the Aesthetics of Violence Paul Sheehan, 2013-06-24 This book addresses the subject of violence as it features in celebrated modernist works from the early twentieth century It traces the modernist fascination with violence back to the middle decades of the nineteenth century when certain writers in France and England sought to celebrate dissident sexualities and stylized criminality
