Haunting is what happens when the past is disturbed and the victims of previous violence who are thought to be buried and forgotten are brought back to the present and made to live again Serbian fiction writers of the 1980s exhume the ghosts of the past re remembering the cruelty of the twentieth century reinterpreting the heroic role of the Partisans and the extraordinary measures taken to defend Yugoslavia's recently won independence and socialist revolution Their uncanny and ghostly imagery challenges the assumptions of the master discourse promoted by the country's orthodox communist authorities and questions the historical roots of social and cultural identities The instability of this period of transition is deepened during the wars of the 1990s when authors turn from the memory of past violence to face the ferocious brutality of new conflicts The haunting evocations in their work continue to articulate fresh uncertainties as the trappings of modern civilization are stripped away and replaced by the destructive logic of civil war The past returns once more with renewed energy in the struggle to make sense of a vastly changed world A Concise History of Serbia Dejan Djokić, 2023-01-26
An accessible and engaging single volume history of Serbia from the Early Middle Ages to the present day Reading War, Making Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Jessica Ortner, Fedja Wierød Borčak, 2025-11-01
In the fields of literary and memory studies the cultural impact of the Bosnian War of 1992-1995 appears despite the scale of devastation somewhat minimal Reading War Making Memory focuses on how authors from the diaspora of the former Yugoslavia have transmitted and translated the realities of the war in their fiction illuminating how these texts interpolate the culture and memory of Bosnia Herzegovina into an act of mnemonic migration Drawing from close readings studies of public reception and focus group interviews this volume explores the attempt to reshape social frameworks of memory and the wider reception and impact of memory making literature across Europe Socialist Realism in Central and Eastern European Literatures under Stalin Evgeny Dobrenko, Natalia Jonsson-Skradol, 2018-02-15
Socialist Realism in Central and Eastern European Literatures is the first published work to offer a variety of alternative perspectives on the literary and cultural Sovietization of Central and Eastern Europe after World War II and emphasize the dialogic relationship between the centre and the satellites instead of the traditional top down approach The introduction of the Soviet cultural model was not quite the smooth endeavour that it was made to look in retrospect rather it was always a work in progress often born out of a give and take with the local authorities intellectuals and interest groups Relying on archival resources the authors examine one of the most controversial attempts at a cultural unification in Europe by providing an overview with a focus on specific case studies an analysis of distinct particularities with attention to the patterns of negotiation and adaptation that were being developed in the process

Writing the Yugoslav Wars Dragana Obradovic, 2016-11-14 In Writing the Yugoslav Wars Dragana Obradovic analyses how the Yugoslav wars of secession helped shape the region's literary culture. Obradovic argues that the crisis of the country's disintegration posed an ethical challenge to self-identified postmodernists. This book takes a transnational approach to literatures of the former Yugoslavia that have been since the 1990s studied separately in line with geopolitical divisions. This post-socialist conflict was one of the moments that reshaped postmodernism for both local and international thinkers much in the same way modernism was shaped by World War I and the advent of mechanized warfare. Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture? This question opens up an important research perspective. In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information. They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books. Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation, the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science. De Tlatelolco al 11-M Marco Kunz, Michel Schultheiss, Rachel Pilet-Bornet, Salvador Girbés, 2021 Los grandes acontecimientos han sido a menudo objeto de ficcionalizaciones narrativas. En este libro se estudia la productividad cultural que desarrollaron en México y España cinco sucesos históricos del último medio siglo: 1 la matanza de manifestantes en la Plaza de las Tres Culturas de Tlatelolco, Ciudad de México, el 2 de octubre de 1968; 2 el terremoto de la Ciudad de México, el 19 de septiembre de 1985; 3 los asesinatos de mujeres en Ciudad Juárez, desde 1993; 4 la guerra de disolución de la antigua Yugoslavia en los años 90; y 5 los atentados terroristas del 11 de marzo de 2004 en trenes de cercanías de Madrid. Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts Amanda Howell, Stephanie Green, 2024-04-18 Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts speaks to how a transnational array of recent screen entertainments participate through horror in public discourses of history, the social and creative work of reshaping popular understanding of our world through the lens of the past. Contemporary film and television and popular screen cultures more generally are distinguished by their many and varied engagements with history, including participation in worldwide movements to reconcile past losses and injuries with present legacies. The chapters in this collection address themselves to 21st-century screen horror's participation in this widespread fascination with and concern for the historical, its recurrent reimagining of the relation between the past and present, which is part of its inheritance from the Gothic. They are concerned with the historical work of horror's spectral occupations, its visceral threats of violence, and its capacity for exploring repressed social identities as well as the ruptures and impositions of colonization and nationhood. Trauma is a key theme in this book, examined through themes of war and genocide, ghostly invasions, institutionalized abuse, apocalyptic threat, and environmental destruction. These persistent fearful reimaginings of the past can take many lurid, sometimes tritely generic forms. Together, these chapters explore and reflect upon horror's ability to speak through them to the unspoken of history, to push the boundaries and probe the fault lines, and ideological impositions of received historical narratives while reminding us that history and the historical imagination persist as sites of contention Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2004 Theses on any subject submitted by the academic libraries in the UK and Ireland
