Magisterial Authority:

The Authority of the Septuagint William A. Ross, Gregory R. Lanier, 2025-10-30 Does the Septuagint have authority for the church today Numerous scholars have explored what the Septuagint is and its history and uses but less scholarship has engaged with the ways it exercises authority within the Christian tradition In the first multicontributor volume of its kind biblical scholars Greg Lanier and Will Ross bring together experts from a variety of disciplines to explore the nature of the Septuagint's authority over the ages Discover fresh insights from experts across disciplines including Old Testament New Testament patristics systematic theology historical theology and more into whether and how the Septuagint holds authority for today's church With clarity and depth this helpful addition to Septuagint studies will expand the conversation of how Christians should understand the Septuagint both in the academy and in the church This book seeks To explore the authority question from multiple perspectives To examine how the early church Reformers and systematic Protestant and Catholic theologians view the Septuagint To disentangle the NT's frequent use of the Septuagint from its perceived status as authoritative or canonical Whether you're a scholar theologian pastor or seminary student The Authority of the Septuagint is an invitation to engage with the Septuagint its history and its significance for the church today Magisterium

Francis A. Sullivan SJ, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis à vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind Magisterium

Francis A. Sullivan, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium. With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium. This is what the present volume sets out to provide. It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit. It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith. Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind.

The Faith Once for All Delivered: Doctrinal Authority in Catholic Theology Fr. Kevin L. Flannery, S.J., 2023-03-07 In the third verse of his eponymous New Testament epistle Jude exhorts his readers to contend for the faith which was once for all delivered a charge that continues to resound to the present day. This collection of essays responds to the apostle's call by providing both a diagnosis of the ills of modern progressivist Catholic doctrinal and moral theology and a prescription for the safeguarding of orthodoxy via a rightly understood return to the traditional sources of theology. The essays in the first part of this collection seek to answer the question: What went wrong with Catholic theology since the Second Vatican Council? Following a brief account of the movement in modern theology from its philosophical basis in Kant and Hegel to the nouvelle thologie and later progressivist theologies of the twentieth century the writings of Karl Rahner, Walter Kasper and Bernhard Haring are treated as representative of principal problematic trends and the concept of heresy is surveyed as it has been understood in the past and as it operates in the Church today. The essays in the second part indicate the way forward for Catholic doctrinal and moral theology examining and distinguishing the orthodox use of the fontes theologiae of magisterial teachings, the deposit of faith in its development, the sense of the faithful (sensus fidelium), Sacred Scripture and Church councils and synods. In its twofold attentiveness to contemporary errors in Catholic theology and to tradition based correctives The Faith Once for All Delivered offers an urgent and compelling summons to the sacred mission of defending doctrinal and moral orthodoxy.

A Theology of Authority Christa L. McKirland, 2025-11-04 Is authority reserved for those with a specific calling to leadership? Who holds power in the church? Does authority have limits? Are teaching and preaching the most important practices of authority? Our understanding and misunderstanding of authority has significant implications for our individual and corporate flourishing. In A Theology of Authority Christa McKirland challenges our assumptions about authority, power and leadership. With a focus on low church traditions she examines authority through the lens of analytic philosophy and biblical theology to offer a theological definition of authority She also tackles questions related to divine and human authority Scripture and practices typically related to ordination preaching teaching serving communion baptizing church discipline and vision casting A Theology of Authority expands our understanding of authority recognizing the Spirit's enablement of each member to fulfill their calling to spiritual maturity Readers will gain a deeper understanding of the nuances of authority and power and how we relate to one another as siblings in Christ The Crisis of Authority in Catholic Modernity Michael J. Lacey, Francis Oakley, 2011-04-06 It is fairly clear that while Rome continues to teach as if its authority were unchanged from the days before Vatican II 1962-65 the majority of Catholics within the first world church at least take a far more independent line and increasingly understand themselves rather than the church as the final arbiter of decision making especially on ethical questions This collection of essays explores the historical background and present ecclesial situation explaining the dramatic shift in attitude on the part of contemporary Catholics in the U S and Europe When the Magisterium Intervenes Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2012 By What Authority? Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2017-06-07 Authority is exercised in many ways and forms in the Catholic Church today By What Authority offers a helpful introduction to the forms of Church authority that are concerned with authentic Christian belief Gaillardetz's book explains what it means to say that the Bible is inspired how Scripture and tradition are related to one another the role of the Pope and bishops in preserving the Christian faith the levels of Church teaching authority how to deal with disagreements with Church teaching the distinctive role of the theologians and the contribution of all the baptized in the formation of Church teaching This book introduces readers to a basic understanding of the nature and exercise of authority in the Catholic Church as understood within the Vision of the Church offered by the Second Vatican Council The chapters conclude by outlining disputed issues regarding the topic of that chapter and a select list of opportunities for further reading Chapters in Part One The Authority of Scripture and Tradition are What Does It Mean to Say the Bible is Inspired What Is the Canon of the Bible and What Is the Relationship Between Scripture and Tradition Chapters in Part Two The Authority of Church Teaching and the Church's Teaching Office are How Do We Understand the Magisterium Today How Do the Pope and Bishops Exercise Their Teaching Authority and What Is Dogma and Doctrine Chapters in Part Three The Authority of the Believer and the Believing Community are What Is the Sense of the Faithful Is There a Place for Disagreement in the Catholic Church and What Is the Proper Relationship Between the Magisterium and Theologians Magisterial Authority Chad Ripberger, 2014-10-28 A reprint of three articles from Christian Order addressing the nature and limits of Magisterial Authority The Book also contains principles in relation to judging contradictory magisterial statements as well as how one should approach an erring magisterial member Authorship and Publicity Before Print Daniel Hobbins, 2012-02-28 Widely recognized by contemporaries as the most powerful theologian of his generation Jean Gerson 1363-1429 dominated the stage of western Europe during a time of plague fratricidal war and religious schism Yet modern scholarship has struggled to define Gerson's place in history even as it searches for a compelling narrative to tell the story of his era Daniel Hobbins argues for a new understanding of Gerson as a man of letters actively managing the publication of his works in a period of rapid expansion in written culture More broadly Hobbins casts Gerson as a mirror of the complex cultural and intellectual shifts of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries In contrast to earlier theologians Gerson took a more humanist approach to reading and to authorship He distributed his works both Latin and French to a more diverse medieval public And he succeeded in reaching a truly international audience of readers within his lifetime Through such efforts Gerson effectively embodies the aspirations of a generation of writers and intellectuals Removed from the narrow confines of late scholastic theology and placed into a broad interdisciplinary context his writings open a window onto the fascinating landscape of fifteenth century Europe The picture of late medieval culture that emerges from this study is neither a specter of decaying scholasticism nor a triumphalist narrative of budding humanism and reform Instead Hobbins describes a period of creative and dynamic growth when new attitudes toward writing and debate demanded and eventually produced new technologies of the written word Femenist

Ethics and Natural Law Cristina L. H. Traina,1999-04-28 Heated debates over such issues as abortion contraception ordination and Church hierarchy suggest that feminist and natural law ethics are diametrically opposed Cristina L H Traina now reexamines both Roman Catholic natural law tradition and Anglo American feminist ethics and reconciles the two positions by showing how some of their aims and assumptions complement one another After carefully scrutinizing Aquinas s moral theology she analyzes trends in both contemporary feminist ethics theological as well as secular and twentieth century Roman Catholic moral theology Although feminist ethics reject many of the methods and conclusions of the scholastic and revisionist natural law schools Traina shows that a truly Thomistic natural law ethic nonetheless provides a much needed holistic foundation for contemporary feminist ethics On the other hand she offers new perspectives on the writings of Josef Fuchs Richard McCormick and Gustavo Gutierrez arguing that their failure to catch the full spirit of Thomas s moral vision is due to inadequate attention to feminist critical methods This highly original book proposes an innovative union of two supposedly antagonistic schools of thought a new feminist natural law that would yield more comprehensive moral analysis than either existing tradition alone This is a provocative book not only for students of moral theology but also for feminists who may object to the very notion of natural law ethics suggesting how each might find insight in an unlikely place

Between Magisterium and Marketplace Robert C. Saler,2018-02-01 Robert C Saler argues for a fresh ecclesiology of the church as a diffusively spatialized event Within this framework Saler provides an ecclesiology that retains normativity while defining authorship and the constructive task of theology Establishing this claim through historical encounters between Thomas More and William Tyndale and John Henry Newman and Friedrich Schleiermacher Between Magisterium and Marketplace provides a theological genealogy of modern ecclesiology offering a humble yet hopeful view of the theological task in light of contemporary ecclesial opportunities Evangelicals and Nicene Faith () Timothy George,2011-10-01 The

Nicene Creed is the most universally accepted statement of Christian faith by Protestant Catholic and Orthodox believers alike In this volume top scholars examine the Nicene Creed s connection with the evangelical tradition helping readers see evangelicalism as a renewal movement within the one holy catholic and apostolic church Particular focus is given to the Creed s practical outworking in the life of the church its theology spirituality worship and mission Topics include pastoral work biblical exegesis the emerging phenomena and Christian orthodoxy s revival in the Global South The book helps readers present the traditional Christian faith to twenty first century people Contributors include Thomas C Oden Gerald Bray Carl E Braaten Curtis W Freeman Elizabeth Newman and Ralph C Wood among others Christian Magistrate and Territorial Church James Martin Estes,2007 Reason Informed by Faith Richard M. Gula,1989 Excellent textbook introduction to the basic issues of fundamental moral theology that considers all of today s moral issues Divine and Human Authority in Reformation Thought Ralph Keen,2024-04-15 Healing Fractures in Contemporary Theology Peter John McGregor,Tracey Rowland,2022-01-20 Since Vatican II the key question that has developed in Catholic theology often unstated or unrecognized is what is theology The thesis presented here is that contemporary theologizing is fractured in many places and to varying degrees These fractures can vary in seriousness between theologians and a particular theologian may suffer from some fractures but not others The fractures addressed here are between theology and spirituality theology and philosophy theology and liturgy the literal and spiritual senses of sacred scripture theology preaching and apologetics theology and ethics theology and social theory dogmatic and pastoral theology theology and the koinonial Christian life theologians and non theologians the generation gap between Gen X and Millennial Post Millennial Catholics and theology and the Magisterium For each of these an attempt is made to examine the symptoms give a diagnosis and write a prescription
