Paul Getty Museum,Jeffrey Hirsch,1996 Uta Barth Arpad Kovacs,2024-04-23 This retrospective of the photographer Uta Barth traces her use of the camera to explore both how and what we see Los Angeles based contemporary artist Uta Barth b 1958 has spent her decades long career exploring the complexities and limits of human and mechanical vision At first

her photographs appear to be deceptively simple depictions of everyday objects light filtering through a window tree branches bereft of leaves a sparsely appointed domestic interior but these images visually spare yet conceptually rigorous emerge from her investigation of sight perception light and time In this richly illustrated monograph curator Arpad Kovacs and contributors Lucy Gallun and Jeremy Gilbert Rolfe chart Barth's career path and discuss her most significant series revealing how she has rejected the primacy of a traditional photographic subject and instead called attention to what is on the periphery The book includes previously unpublished bodies of work made early in her career that add much to our understanding of this important artist Also included is Barth's most recent work from dawn to dusk an ambitious commission marking the twenty fifth anniversary of the Getty Center

Intersections Iain Borden, Jane Rendell, 2000 Intersections represents a newly emergent approach to the history of architecture that addresses both the relevance of critical theories to an historical understanding of architecture and the development of those theories Los Angeles Magazine, 2005-10 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Museum Skepticism David Carrier, 2006-05-31 Prominent art historian looks at the birth of the art museum and contemplates its future as a public institution

Allure of the Incomplete, Imperfect, and Impermanent Rumiko Handa, 2014-12-17 Architects have long operated based on the assumption that a building is complete once construction has finished Striving to create a perfect building they wish for it to stay in its original state indefinitely viewing any subsequent alterations as unintended effects or the results of degeneration The ideal is for a piece of architecture to remain permanently perfect and complete This contrasts sharply with reality where changes take place as people move in requirements change events happen and building materials are subject to wear and tear Rumiko Handa argues it is time to correct this imbalance Using examples ranging from the Roman Coliseum to Japanese tea rooms she draws attention to an area that is usually ignored the allure of incomplete imperfect and impermanent architecture By focusing on what happens to buildings after they are complete she shows that the afterlife is in fact the very life of a building However the book goes beyond theoretical debate Addressing professionals as well as architecture students and educators it persuades architects of the necessity to anticipate possible future changes and to incorporate these into their original designs

Reyner Banham and the Paradoxes of High Tech Todd Gannon, 2017-09-05 Reyner Banham and the Paradoxes of High Tech reassesses one of the most influential voices in twentieth century architectural history through a detailed examination of Banham's writing on High Tech architecture and its immediate antecedents Taking as a guide Banham's habit of structuring his writings around dialectical tensions Todd Gannon sheds new light on Banham's early engagement with the New Brutalism of Alison and Peter Smithson his measured enthusiasm for the clip on approach developed by Cedric Price and the Archigram group his advocacy of well tempered environments fostered by integrated mechanical and electrical systems and his late career assessments of High Tech practitioners such as Norman Foster Richard Rogers and Renzo Piano Gannon devotes significant attention to Banham s late work including fresh archival materials related to Making Architecture The Paradoxes of High Tech the manuscript he left unfinished at his death in 1988 For the first time readers will have access to Banham s previously unpublished draft introduction to that book ARTnews ,1998
