Kenya After 50 Mickie Mwanzia Koster, 2016 Kenya After 50 Mickie Mwanzia Koster, Michael Mwenda Kithinji, Jerono P. Rotich, 2016-04-08 This book explores the key milestones in education gender and policy that Kenya has achieved since independence the challenges of this experience and the future prospects This edited collection of chapters also aims to illuminate the lessons learned from the experiences of the postcolonial period as well as postulate on the way forward Through this exploration of the Kenyan experience since independence the authors present an optimistic view that despite the many obstacles and challenges the country still has promising prospects as a nation Empowering Learners With Mobile Open-Access Learning Initiatives Mills, Michael, Wake, Donna, 2017-01-05 Education has been progressing at a rapid pace ever since educators have been able to harness the power of mobile technology Open access learning techniques provide more students with the opportunity to engage in educational opportunities that may have been previously restricted Empowering Learners With Mobile Open Access Learning Initiatives is an authoritative reference source that offers an engaging look at how mobile technologies are aiding educators in providing new innovative ways to enhance student learning experiences Featuring relevant topics such as switch access technology digital portfolios dual enrollment students and place conscious education this is a reliable resource for academicians educators students and practitioners that are interested in studying recent mobile education advancements Kenya After 50 Michael Mwenda Kithinji, Mickie Mwanzia Koster, Jerono P. Rotich, 2016-04-08 This book explores the journey that Kenya has travelled as a nation since its independence on December 12 1963 It seeks to advance understanding of the country's major milestones in the postcolonial period the challenges and the lessons that can be learned from this experience and the future prospects Gender and Development Emily Awino Onyango, 2018-10-31 For a long time African history has been dominated by western perspectives through predominantly male accounts of colonial governments and missionaries In contrast Dr Emily Onyango provides an African history of mission education development and women's roles in Kenya Based on archival research and interviews of primary sources this book explores the relationship of these areas of history with each other focusing on the Luo culture and the period of 1895 to 2000 With the pre colonial African context as the foundation for understanding and writing history Dr Onyango uses gender to analyze the role of Christian missionaries in the development of women's education and their position in Kenyan society The result of this well researched study is not only a challenge to the traditional understanding of history but also a counternarrative to the common view that to be liberated African women must disregard Christianity Rather she looks at the importance Christianity plays in helping women establish themselves economically politically and socially in Kenyan society This research is a vital contribution to women's history and the history of Christianity in Africa Gender and Development Emily Awino Onyango, 2018 African Womanhood in Colonial Kenya, 1900-50 Tabitha M. Kanogo, 2005 This book explores the history of African womanhood in colonial Kenya By focussing on key sociocultural institutions and practices around which the lives of women were organized and on the protracted debates that surrounded these institutions and practices during the colonial period it investigates the nature of indigenous mission and colonial control of African women The pertinent institutions and practices include the legal and cultural status of women clitoridectomy dowry marriage maternity and motherhood and formal education By following the effects of the all pervasive ideological shifts that colonialism produced in the lives of women the study investigates the diverse ways in which a woman s personhood was enhanced diminished or placed in ambiguous predicaments by the consequences intended and unintended of colonial rule as administered by both the colonizers and the colonized The study thus tries to historicize the reworkings of women s lives under colonial rule The transformations that resulted from these reworkings involved the negotiation and redefinition of the meaning of individual liberties and of women s agency along with the reconceptualization of kinship relations and of community These changes resulted in and often resulted from increased mobility for Kenyan women who were enabled to cross physical cultural economic social and psychological frontiers that had been closed to them prior to colonial rule The conclusion to which the experiences of women in colonial Kenya points again and again is that for these women the exercise of individual agency whether it was newly acquired or repeatedly thwarted depended in large measure on the unleashing of forces over which no one involved had control Over and over women found opportunities to act amid the conflicting policies unintended consequences and inconsistent compromises that characterized colonial rule

African Women and Intellectual Leadership Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi, Emily Achieng' Akuno, Dannica Fleuss, Humphrey J. Ojwang, 2024 This book highlights the pioneering roles of African women as leaders and role models in Kenya providing examples taken from across education health business and a range of other sectors Drawing on authentic first hand accounts and narratives from key women in leadership positions and those who have lived with them the book presents the life stories of women leaders over the last fifty years aiming to preserve their contributions for posterity and to inspire young people with moral ethical and progressive role models The book uses African knowledge production strategies that look at the human being holistically in the prism of Ubuntu in order to define leadership in Africa from an African perspective one that celebrates the role of the mother figure and places women at the centre of African values and societal dynamics This book will be of interest to researchers and students of African studies gender studies and Kenyan education and socio political history

The Top Books of the Year Kenya After 50 Reconfiguring Education Gender And Policy African Histories And Modernities The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Kenya After 50 Reconfiguring Education Gender And Policy African Histories And Modernities : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
