The Essence of Aikido Bill Sosa,Bryan Robbins,1987

Morihei Ueshiba envisioned a style that could be both non aggressive and still effective in a multitude of self defense situations From that vision came the art of aikido As a student you will be taught to respect the body of your opponent The techniques should never cause permanent damage The pain you inflict will be momentary The aikido student is taught to search for eternal harmony But this training has no end for aikidoists believe perfection of character is never complete
