¹² To address the issue, we estimated the model for each country separately. The results are available from the author upon request.

As noted earlier, the 1990s witnessed a dramatic rise in the number of U.S. firms operating in emerging markets. This rise was driven by a number of factors, including the increasing globalization of the economy, the need for U.S. firms to diversify their operations, and the growing importance of emerging markets as sources of raw materials and labor.
