Otherness in Hispanic Culture Teresa Fernandez Ulloa,2014-06-26 This book addresses contemporary discourses on a wide variety of topics related to the ideological and epistemological changes of the 19th 20th and 21st centuries and the ways in which they have shaped the Spanish language and cultural manifestations in both Spain and Hispanic America The majority of the chapters are concerned with otherness in its various dimensions the alien Other foreign immigrant ethnically different disempowered female or minor as well as the Other of different sexual orientation and or ideology Following Octavio Paz otherness is expressed as the attempt to find the lost object of desire the frustrating endeavour of the androgynous Plato wishing to embrace the other half of Zeus who in his wrath tore off from him Otherness compels human beings to search for the complement from which they were severed Thus a male joins a female his other half the only half that not only fills him but which allows him to return to the unity and reconciliation which is restored in its own perfection formerly altered by divine will As a result of this transformation one can annul the distance that keeps us away from that which not being our own turns into a source of anguish The clashing diversity of all things requires the human predisposition to accept that which is different Such a predisposition is an expression of epistemological ethical and political aperture The disposition to co exist with the different is imagined in the de anthropocentricization of the bonds with all living realms And otherness is in some way the reflection of sameness mismidad The other is closely related to the self because the vision of the other implies a reflection about the self it implies consciously or not a relationship with the self These topics are addressed in filmmaking in Mexico a new approach to adaptation as a potential feminist strategy and a cultural history of generational changes in Mexico Ilana Dann Luna examines how adapted films have the potential to subvert not only the intentions of the source text but how they can also interrupt the hegemony of gender stereotypes in a broader socio political context Luna follows the industrial shifts that began with Salinas de Gortari's presidency which made the long 1990s the precise moment in which subversive filmmakers particularly women were able to participate more fully in the industry and portrayed the lived experiences of women and non gender conforming men The analysis focuses on Busi Cort's's El secreto de Romelia 1988 an adaptation of Rosario Castellanos's short novel El viudo Román 1964 Sabina Berman and Isabelle Tardón's Entre
