English Novel, Vol I Richard W. F. Kroll, 2014-07-21 The English Novel Volume I 1700 to Fielding collects a series of previously published essays on the early eighteenth century novel in a single volume reflecting the proliferation of theoretical approaches since the 1970s The novel has been the object of some of the most exciting and important critical speculations and the eighteenth century novel has been at the centre of new approaches both to the novel and to the period between 1700 and 1750 Richard Kroll's introduction seeks to frame the contributions by reference to the most significant critical discussions These include the question of whether and how we can talk about the rise of the novel the vexed question of what might constitute a novel the relationship between the novel and possibly competing genres such as history or the romance the relationship between early male writers like Defoe and popular novels by women in the early eighteenth century the general ideological role played by novels relative to eighteenth century culture are they means of ideological conscription or liberation poststructuralist analyses of identity and gender and the emergence of sentimental and domestic codes after Richardson Since the modern European novel is often thought to have been formed in this period these debates have clear implications for students of the novel in general as well as for those interested in the early enlightenment Headnotes place each essay within the map of these wider concerns and the volume offers a useful further reading list Taken as a whole this collection encapsulates the state of criticism at the present moment

Culture and Identity through English as a Lingua Franca Will Baker, 2015-07-01 The use of English as a global lingua franca has given rise to new challenges and approaches in our understanding of language and communication One area where ELF English as a lingua franca studies both from an empirical and theoretical orientation have the potential for significant developments is in our understanding of the relationships between language culture and identity ELF challenges traditional assumptions concerning the purported inexorable link between a language and a culture Due to the multitude of users and contexts of ELF communication the supposed language culture and identity correlation often conceived at the national level appears simplistic and naïve However it is equally naïve to assume that ELF is a culturally and identity neutral form of communication All communication involves participants purposes contexts and histories none of which are neutral Thus we need new approaches to understanding the relationship between language culture and identity which are able to account for the multifarious and dynamic nature of ELF communication

Framework Legacies of Injustice Steve Carlton-Ford,2024-10-01 This book examines the impact of the African slave trade and colonialism on political civil economic social and environmental human rights Using multiple combined data sets the book demonstrates that many contemporary human rights issues stem from the impact of the African slave trade and subsequent colonialism as well as the disruption of economic and political development in colonies Unlike other books concerning human rights this book views contemporary human rights issues from both historical and sociological vantage points This important book will be of interest to students studying in courses covering human rights Africa and Africana studies and history comparative ethnic studies historical sociology and global studies of the African slave trade The Adult Learner Malcolm Knowles,Elwood F. Holton III,Petra A. Robinson,Corina Caraccioli,2025-01-28 How do you tailor education to the learning needs of adults Do they learn differently from children How does their life experience inform their learning processes These were the questions at the heart of Malcolm Knowles pioneering theory of andragogy which transformed education theory in the 1970s The resulting principles of a self directed experiential problem centred approach to learning have been hugely influential and are still the basis of the learning practices we use today Understanding these principles is the cornerstone of increasing motivation and enabling adult learners to achieve The 10th edition of The Adult Learner has been revised to include The two chapters on diversity inclusion and belonging in adult learning and andragogy and the online adult learner have been greatly expanded to reflect the importance of these topics to the field today The accompanying Instructor and Student Resources website provides free digital materials designed to enhance student learning and save instructors time when preparing lessons Resources include Ready to use PowerPoint slides to save instructor time when planning lessons Learning objectives and part outlines for structured learning Suggested class discussions exercises and scenario based activities Downloadable instruments for chapters 19 to 22 Video explaining the Andragogy In Practice model A chapter by chapter Instructor Manual and a corresponding Student Guide to enhance learning outcomes If you are a researcher practitioner or student in education an adult learning practitioner training manager or involved in human resource development this is the definitive book in adult learning you should not be without Narrative Across Media Marie-Laure Ryan,2004-01-01 Narratology has been conceived from its earliest days as a project that transcends disciplines and media The essays gathered here address the question of how narrative migrates mutates and creates meaning as it is expressed across various media Dividing the inquiry into five areas face to face narrative still pictures moving pictures music and digital media Narrative across Media investigates how the intrinsic properties of the supporting medium shape the form of narrative and affect the narrative experience Unlike other interdisciplinary approaches to narrative studies all of which have tended to concentrate on narrative across language supported fields this unique collection provides a much needed analysis of how narrative operates when expressed through visual gestural electronic and musical means In doing so the collection redefines the act of storytelling Although the fields of media and narrative studies have been invigorated by a variety of theoretical approaches this volume seeks to avoid a dominant theoretical bias by providing instead a collection of concrete studies that inspire a direct look at texts rather than relying on a particular theory of interpretation A contribution to both narrative and media studies Narrative across Media is the first attempt to bridge the two disciplines The Way of the Labyrinth Helen Curry,2000-10-01 The first time Helen Curry walked a labyrinth she was moved to tears and then was filled with peace and possibilities Here she shares her years of experience with labyrinth meditation and shows how others can find serenity and guidance by adopting this increasingly popular practice Unlike mazes which force choices and can create fear and confusion labyrinths are designed to embrace and guide individuals through a calming meditative walk on a single circular path The Way of the Labyrinth includes meditations prayers questions for enhancing labyrinth walks guidelines for ceremonies instructions for finger meditations and extensive resources This enchanting practical and exquisitely packaged guide helps both novice and experienced readers enjoy the benefits of labyrinth meditation from problem solving to stress reduction to personal transformation Includes a foreword by Jean Houston the renowned author and leader in the field of humanistic psychology who is considered the grandmother of the current labyrinth revival New Technology and Education Anthony Edwards,2012-01-26 New Technology and Education explores the benefits and dangers of the increasing use of technology in education drawing on different cultural perspectives from across the globe to consider a variety of viewpoints The reader is encouraged to engage with each facet of the debate considering the philosophical psychological and sociological implications of the relationship between technology and education Recent debates and developments are considered including What is the relationship between creativity education and new technology Are subject boundaries blurred by the use of new technologies How do we plan for technologies becoming redundant Reflective exercises interviews chapter summaries and useful websites encourage and support student learning and the application of new concepts A Model for Islamic Development Shafiullah Jan,Mehmet Asutay,2019 This book aims to explore and analyse Islamic Moral Economy IME as an alternative economic and social system to capitalism and socialism It proposes a new model of Islamic development integrating global development within an Islamic framework of spiritual development It is argued that the failure of Muslim countries to provide basic necessities and an environment free of oppression and injustice can be overcome with this authentic Islamic development framework In addition this book can be an important study to identify the theological political social and economic boundaries for changing the society to produce IME oriented developmentalism American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 Multilingual Learners and Academic Literacies Daniella Molle,Edynn Sato,Timothy Boals,Carol A. Hedgspeth,2015-03-05 Shifting the discourse from a focus on academic language to the more dynamic but less researched construct of academic literacies this volume addresses three key questions What constitutes academic literacy What does academic literacy development in adolescent multilingual students look like and how can this development be assessed What classroom contexts foster the development of academic literacies in multilingual adolescents The contributing authors provide divergent definitions of academic literacies and use dissimilar theoretical and methodological approaches to study literacy development Nevertheless all chapters reflect a shared conceptual framework for examining academic literacies as situated overlapping meaning making practices This framework foregrounds students participation in valued disciplinary literacy practices Emphasized in the new college and career readiness standards the notion of disciplinary practices allows the contributing authors to bridge the language content dichotomy and take a more holistic as well as nuanced view of the demands that multilingual students face in general education classrooms The volume also explores the implications of the emphasis on academic literacy practices for classroom instruction research and policy
