Andrew D. Morris, 2011 Morris successfully weaves the intricacies of baseball's history into a compelling narrative while giving us a keen analysis of its larger significance It is rare to find someone who can pull that off This is an absorbing and distinguished addition to sports history to Taiwanese history and to studies of colonialism and its aftermath William Kelly Yale University Colonial Project National Game offers an engaging and penetrating analysis of the culture of baseball in Taiwan in both its local and global conditions Morris weaves details into a compelling narrative that is as much about the game on the field as the game being played out in the arenas of ethnicity nationalism and geopolitics Morris's study is a model of sophistication and lucidity He demonstrates that through a perceptive reading of the mundane world of curve balls and player contracts we can better understand the ideological substructure of the social Joseph R Allen University of Minnesota Twin Cities Formations of Colonial Modernity in East Asia Tani E. Barlow, 1997 The essays in Formations of Colonial Modernity in East Asia challenge the idea that notions of modernity and colonialism are mere imports from the West and show how colonial modernity has evolved from and into unique forms throughout Asia Although the modernity of non European colonies is as indisputable as the colonial core of European modernity until recently East Asian scholarship has tried to view Asian colonialism through the paradigm of colonial India for instance failing to recognize anti imperialist nationalist impulses within differing Asian countries and regions Demonstrating an impatience with social science models of knowledge the contributors show that binary categories focused on during the Cold War are no longer central to the project of history writing By bringing together articles previously published in the journal positions east asia cultures critique editor Tani Barlow has demonstrated how scholars construct identity and history providing cultural critics with new ways to think about these concepts in the context of Asia and beyond Chapters address topics such as the making of imperial subjects in Okinawa politics and the body social in colonial Hong Kong and the discourse of decolonization and popular memory in South Korea This is an invaluable collection for students and scholars of Asian studies postcolonial studies and anthropology Contributors Charles K Armstrong Tani E Barlow Fred Y L Chiu Chungmoo Choi Alan S Christy Craig Clunas James A Fujii James L Hevia Charles Shiro Inouye Lydia H Liu Miriam Silverberg Tomiyama Ichiro Wang Hui Blanks, Print, Space, and Void in English Renaissance Literature Jonathan Sawday, 2023 This book is an inquiry into blank or empty spaces in primarily English printed books in the period c 1500 c 1700 as well as in Renaissance culture more generally The book concentrates on the substrate the background of any printed work which is often held to be empty or blank space These spaces are also considered as gaps where text or images are constructed as missing lost withheld or perhaps never devised in the first place The topics discussed include space and silence emptiness and absence the vacuum race and racial identity blackness and whiteness together with lightness darkness and sightlessness cartography and emptiness the effect of typography on reading
