relationship between the home as a place of comfort and reassurance and the often unsettling and challenging images offered by contemporary art. Within the art world the home has been addressed as a subject and even used as a temporary gallery and a space for installations and yet it is not common for works by today's avant garde artists to be conceived and marketed to participate in the domestic lives that most people live. Handsomely illustrated, this book unites contemporary art, craft and design with sociology, anthropology and cultural studies to provide an unusual and forthright addition to ongoing art and culture debates.
