Filak, 2014-10-30

Convergent Journalism: An Introduction is a pioneering textbook that will teach you how to master the skills needed to be a journalist in today's converged media landscape. This book shows you what makes a news story effective and how to identify the best platform for a particular story whether it's the Web, broadcast or print. The bedrock tenets of journalism remain at the core of this book including information dissemination, storytelling, audience engagement. After establishing these journalism basics, the book goes into great detail on how to tailor a story to meet the needs of various media. Vincent F. Filak has brought this second edition completely up to date through a thorough reorganization of the chapters which provides a newer, more practical approach focused on how to do convergent journalism rather than simply observing the current state of converged media. A number of new pedagogical features to improve learning and retention including examples, exercises, breakout boxes and more. Coverage of additional topics such as issues of law and ethics in digital media and also writing for mobile platforms and social media. A companion website with links to additional examples of quality text, images and multimedia for students as well as an instructor site with a test bank, suggested exercises and discussion questions.

Media Depictions of Brides, Wives, and Mothers Alena Amato Ruggerio, 2012-09-27 Media Depictions of Brides, Wives and Mothers edited by Alena Amato Ruggerio explores how television, film, the internet and other media variously perpetuate gender stereotypes. The contributors to this volume bring a variety of feminist rhetorical and media criticism approaches from across the communication discipline to their analyses of how television, film, news coverage and the Internet shape our expectations of the performance of women's identities. This collection includes studies of Bridezilla, Jon Kate Plus 8, Sex and the City, Sarah Palin, Nancy Pelosi, The Devil Wears Prada, Practical Magic, mommy blogs and Mad Men fan websites. Readers will learn to apply the insights from each chapter to their own sets of myths, stereotypes and assumptions about gendered roles and to recognize the possibilities for both liberation and domination when women's practices of marrying, mating and mothering are represented and misrepresented in the media. This collection is an essential contribution to media studies and criticism of gender stereotypes in contemporary culture. Read the author's recent interview with Literary Ashland.
