Madness The Invention Of An Idea Harper Perennial Modern Thought:

Madness Michel Foucault, 2011-01-04 Compelling and highly influential Michel Foucault's Madness is an indispensable work for readers who wish to understand the intellectual evolution of one of the most important social theorists of the twentieth century. Written in 1954 and revised in 1962, Madness delineates the profound shift that occurred in Foucault's thought during this period. The first iteration reflects the philosopher's early interest in and respect for Freudian theory and the psychoanalytic tradition. The second part marks a dramatic change in Foucault's thinking. Examining the history of madness as a social and cultural construct, he moves into a radical critique of Freud and toward the postmodern deconstruction that was to dominate and define his later work.

Culture, Politics and Governing P. Nickel, 2015-02-10 Culture, Politics and Governing: The Contemporary Ascetics of Knowledge Production is a critical interdisciplinary approach to how the practices that govern the production of knowledge and culture have material consequences for how we experience everyday life.

Subjectivity Dominique Chateau, 2025-10-01 Subjectivity is a central concept in film theory, philosophy, and cultural studies. It was also a key term in the reception of the Nouvelle Vague film movement in France and Italy from the start of 1945. This timely volume explores the ways in which the concept of subjectivity has made its way into film theory, history, practice, and criticism, as well as the confrontations of the subject with this rapidly changing medium. Contributors to this timely study include Francesco Casetti, Gregory Currie, Marina Grzinic, Maria Klonaris, and Katerina Thomadaki. Jacinto Lageira, Jos Moure, Pere Salabert, Celine Scemama, Karl Sierek, Vivian Sobchack, and Pierre Taminiaux. Their illuminating essays are a testimony to their profound involvement in the subjectivity debate, enriching our perception of film history and our understanding of the medium.

Commonplace Commitments Peter S. Fosl, Michael J. McGandy, Mark D. Moorman, 2016-09-30 Joseph P. Fell proposes that the solution to the problem of nihilism is found in the common experience of persons and the everyday commitments that one makes to people, practices, and institutions. In his landmark 1979 book Heidegger and Sartre and in his subsequent essays, Fell describes a quiet but radical reform in the philosophical tradition that speaks to perennial dilemmas of thought and pressing issues for action. Since Descartes, at least, we have been puzzled as to what we can know, how we should act, and what we should value. The skeptical influence of modern dualism, distilled in the mind-body problem, arose with the assertion "I think, therefore I am," which has shot through not just philosophy and psychology but also society, politics, and culture. With dualism arose radical subjectivism and the concomitant problems of nihilism and alienation. The broad aim of phenomenology is to repair the rupture of self and world. Announced by Edmund Husserl and developed by Jean-Paul Sartre, Martin Heidegger, and John William Miller, who drew from the North American tradition, this is the project to which Fell has devoted more than a half-century of reflection and technical elaboration. In this volume, an array of scholars consider, criticize, and cultivate Fell's key contributions to the phenomenological project. Ranging from analyses of key texts in Fell's phenomenology to probing examinations of his crucial philosophical presuppositions to the prospects for

Fell's call to find the solution to nihilism in everyday experience these essays gather the work of the authors thinking with and through Fell's key works on Sartre Heidegger and Miller Also included are seminal statements from Fell on his pedagogical practice and his conception of philosophy

Why We Fight David Churchman, 2013-05-09 This book draws on twenty four academic disciplines to provide a critical analysis of some 100 theories that explain the origins nature and management of human conflict The book treats intellectual individual moral interpersonal organizational community political and international conflicts It suggests six criteria for distinguishing good from bad theory and discusses how existing theories may be used and improved

The Nirvana Express Mick Brown, 2023-09-07 In 1897 an Indian yogi named Bava Lachman Dass exhibited himself at the Westminster Aquarium in London demonstrating forty eight yoga positions to a bemused audience Four years earlier Hindu philosopher Swami Vivekananda had spoken at the first World Parliament of Religions in Chicago where theosophist Annie Besant rhapsodised about his inborn sense of worth and the exquisite beauty of his spiritual message The Victorians had conflicted views on the religious beliefs and practices of the Indian sub continent blending fascination and suspicion But within two generations legions of young Westerners would be following the hippie trail to India and the Beatles would be meditating at the feet of the guru Maharishi Mahesh Yogi Journalist Mick Brown's vivid account charts the eccentric history of the West's evolving love affair with Indian religion through a curious cast of scholars seekers charlatans and saints From Edwin Arnold whose epic poem about the life of the Buddha became a best seller in Victorian Britain to the occultist and magician Aleister Crowley and from spiritual teachers Jiddu Krishnamurti Meher Baba and Ramana Maharshi to the controversial guru Rajneesh The Nirvana Express is an exhilarating sometimes troubling journey through the West's search for enlightenment

The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re-exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory

The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault s conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject s confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy

Jacob Boehme and the Spiritual Roots of Psychotherapy Glenn J. McCullough, 2025-04-14 Jacob Boehme 1574 1624 was a wildly creative mystical writer whose extraordinary revelations of God the soul and the universe have been consigned to obscurity In this original book Glenn J McCullough argues that Boehme is the ultimate source of a key modern movement psychotherapy Bringing clarity to Boehme s revelations McCullough shows how he anticipates the pioneering concepts of Sigmund Freud and C G Jung including their ideas of the unconscious mind and its remarkable potentials At the centre of Boehme s thought is the figure of Sophia divine Wisdom and her seven drives which guide the soul on a journey of expanded awareness and rebirth While Boehme has been dismissed as an esoteric outsider McCullough situates him in the mainstream Western tradition of Augustine and Luther while highlighting his unique approach to the ecstatic dream world of Wisdom

Honor in the Modern World Dan

Demetriou, Laurie M. Johnson, 2016-08-03 After a century long hiatus honor is back Academics pundits and everyday citizens alike are rediscovering the importance of this ancient and powerful human motive This volume brings together some of the foremost researchers of honor to debate honor s meaning and its compatibility with liberalism democracy and modernity Contributors representing philosophy sociology political science history psychology leadership studies and military science examine honor past to present from masculine and feminine perspectives and in North American European and African contexts Topics include the role of honor in the modern military the effects of honor on our notions of the dignity and purity of women honor as a quality of good statesmen and citizens honor s role in international relations and community norms and how honor s egalitarian and elitist aspects intersect with democratic and liberal regimes Technology and Theology

William H. U. Anderson, 2021-01-05 Technology is growing at an exponential rate vis vis humanity s ability to control it Moreover the numerous ethical issues that technology raises are also troubling These statements however may be alarmist since Telus would tell us The Future is Friendly The Modernist vision of the future was utopic for instance Star Trek of the 1960s But postmodern views such as are found in Blade Runner 2049 are dystopic Theology is in a unique interdisciplinary position to deal with the many issues pro and con that technology raises Even theologians like Origen in the third century and Aquinas in the thirteenth century made forays into Artificial Intelligence and surrounding issues they just didn t know it at the time Artificial Intelligence AI and Transhumanism raise questions about what it means to be human What is consciousness What is soul What are life and death Can technology really save us and give us eternal life Theology is in a unique position to handle these questions and issues This book also has practical applications in terms of ecclesiology church in the context of the COVID 19 pandemic both in terms of what it means to be a church and in terms of the sacraments or ordinances Is there such a thing as a Virtual Church or must we gather physically to constitute one Are Baptism and Communion legitimate if one is not physically in a church building but are online This book struggles with these and many other questions which will help the scholar or reader make up their own minds however tentatively American Book
