

The background of the entire image is a vibrant, stylized floral pattern. It features large, bold shapes in red, yellow, and teal against a white background. The red shapes often have a black circular center, resembling stylized flowers or eyes. The yellow shapes are more organic and leaf-like. The teal shapes are elongated and curved, suggesting stems or leaves. The overall style is graphic and modern.

Writing Migration through the Body Emma Bond, 2018-09-05 Writing Migration through the Body builds a study of the body as a mutable site for negotiating and articulating the transnational experience of mobility At its core stands a selection of recent migration stories in Italian which are brought into dialogue with related material from cultural studies and the visual arts Occupying no single disciplinary space and drawing upon an elaborate theoretical framework ranging from phenomenology to anthropology human geography and memory studies this volume explores the ways in which the skin itself operates as a border and brings to the surface the processes by which a sense of place and self are described and communicated through the migrant body Through investigating key concepts and practices of transnational embodied experience the book develops the interpretative principle that the individual bodies which move in contemporary migration flows are the primary agents through which the transcultural passages of images emotions ideas memories and also histories and possible futures are enacted

Home, Memory and Belonging in Italian Postcolonial Literature Chiara Giuliani, 2021-08-27 This book examines the meaning of home through the investigation of a series of public and private spaces recurrent in Italian postcolonial literature The chapters by respectively considering Termini train station in Rome phone centres the condominium and the private spaces of the bathroom and the bedroom investigate how migrant characters inhabit those places and turn them into familiar spaces of belonging Home Memory and Belonging in Italian Postcolonial Literature suggests home spaces as a possible lens to examine these specific places and a series of practices enacted by their inhabitants in order to feel at home Drawing on a wide array of sources this book focuses on the role played by memory in creating transnational connections between present and past locations and on how these connections shape migrants sense of self and migrants identity

Gendering Commitment Alex Standen, 2015-10-05 Notions of engagement commitment and impegno continue to provoke debate amongst academics researching contemporary Italian culture and yet be it by accident or by more conscious selection critical work has tended to posit these concepts as a predominantly male and often heteronormative domain This collection of essays challenges this assumption and analyses more closely the fluid and fragmented nature of commitment and the work of Italian intellectuals and cultural practitioners associated with it The volume s contributors engage with those who have typically been excluded from such debates not only female writers and artists but also males whose work has been denied the designation of impegnato The chapters all focus on individuals who insist on the need to question interrogate and denounce social realities Employing a range of theoretical perspectives and bringing into dialogue individuals not typically associated with terms such as engagement and commitment this volume offers an original and distinctive contribution to a discussion that persists in Italian studies

New Perspectives in Italian Cultural Studies Graziella Parati, 2012-07-13 New Perspectives in Italian Cultural Studies Volume 1 Definitions Theory and Accented Practices is a collection of essays that identifies a number of different approaches in cultural studies and in Italian cultural studies in particular It highlights that history of cultural studies and new developments in the field as well focuses on practicing cultural studies with essays devoted to Italian hip hop culture postcolonial Italy and queer diaspora Occidentalism in Japan Italian racism and colonialism

Clan Cleansing in Somalia Lidwien Kapteijns, 2012-12-18 In 1991 certain political and military leaders in Somalia wishing to gain exclusive control over the state mobilized their followers to use terror wounding raping and killing to expel a vast number of Somalis from the capital city of Mogadishu and south central and southern Somalia Manipulating clan sentiment they succeeded in turning ordinary civilians against neighbors friends and coworkers Although this episode of organized communal violence is common knowledge among Somalis its real nature has not been publicly acknowledged and has been ignored concealed or misrepresented in scholarly works and political memoirs until now Marshaling a vast amount of source material including Somali poetry and survivor accounts Clan Cleansing in Somalia analyzes this campaign of clan cleansing against the historical background of a violent and divisive military dictatorship in the contemporary context of regime collapse and in relationship to the rampant militia warfare that followed in its wake Clan Cleansing in Somalia also reflects on the relationship between history truth and postconflict reconstruction in Somalia Documenting the organization and intent behind the campaign of clan cleansing Lidwien Kapteijns traces the emergence of the hate narratives and code words that came to serve as rationales and triggers for the violence However it was not clans that killed she insists but people who killed in the name of clan Kapteijns argues that the mutual forgiveness for which politicians often so lightly call is not a feasible proposition as long as the violent acts for which Somalis should forgive each other remain suppressed and undiscussed Clan Cleansing in Somalia establishes that public acknowledgment of the ruinous turn to communal violence is indispensable to social and moral repair and can provide a gateway for the critical memory work required from Somalis on all sides of this multifaceted conflict

Women and Migration Deborah Willis, Ellyn Toscano, Kalia Brooks Nelson, 2019-03-08 The essays in this book chart how women s profound and turbulent experiences of migration have been articulated in writing photography art and film As a whole the volume gives an impression of a wide range of migratory events from women s perspectives covering the Caribbean Diaspora refugees and slavery through the various lenses of politics and war love and family The contributors which include academics and artists offer both personal and critical points of view on the artistic and historical repositories of these experiences Selfies motherhood violence and Hollywood all feature in this substantial treasure trove of women s joy and suffering disaster and delight place memory and identity This collection appeals to artists and scholars of the humanities particularly within the social sciences though there is much to recommend it to creatives seeking inspiration or counsel on the issue of migratory experiences

AfroEurope@n Configurations Sabrina Brancato, 2011-09-22 This volume brings together contributions from various disciplines in the humanities exploring a variety of cultural social and political configurations produced by the African presence in Europe and attempting to consolidate a comparative framework for the study of contemporary black literatures and identities across different national and linguistic contexts From the circumstances of black students in Russia to the recovery of a forgotten African identity in the Canary Islands from the specificities of Portuguese postcoloniality to the representations of Africans in Iceland the essays collected here provide a wide spectrum of research on African Diasporas in Eastern Western Southern and Northern Europe offering insights into previously little explored areas

Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives Ron Kubati, Marie Orton, Graziella Parati, 2021-10-26 Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives is about identity individual and national and belonging It is also an affirmation of diversity The editors of this volume have brought together articles that analyze the literature of migration as well as creative pieces by recognized authors who have a lived experience of migration English speakers will find their own societal struggles with diversity mirrored in Italy's colonial inheritance and its renewed nationalism populism xenophobia and shifting national identity The artists and scholars who have contributed to this book challenge national discourses dehumanizations and issues of race and gender But many also seek to move beyond the negative and critical to claim belonging especially national belonging in the name of diversity as part of human experience The chapters emphasize how individuals both reflect and enact societal change and they foreground the inescapable fact that human differences and migration drive and shape societal identity in our world

Postcolonial Italy Cristina Lombardi-Diop, 2012-12-06 This volume constitutes a multidisciplinary intervention into the emerging field of postcolonial studies in Italy bringing together cultural and social history critical and political theory literary and cinematic analyses ethnomusicology and cultural studies anthropological fieldwork and race gender diaspora and urban studies

(In)digestion in Literature and Film Serena J. Rivera, Niki Kiviat, 2020-04-21 In digestion in Literature and Film A Transcultural Approach is a collection of essays spanning diverse geographic areas such as Brazil Eastern Europe France Ireland Italy Japan Mexico South Korea Taiwan and the United States Despite this geographic variance they all question disordered eating practices represented in literary and filmic works The collection ultimately redefines disorder removing the pathology and stigma assigned to acts of non normative eating In so doing the essays deem taboo practices of food consumption rejection and avoidance as expressions of resistance and defiance in the face of restrictive sociocultural political and economic normativities As a result disorder no longer equates to out of order implying a sense of brokenness but is instead envisioned as an act against the dominant of order of operations The collection therefore shifts critical focus from the eater as the embodiment of disorder to the problematic norms that defines behaviors as such
