Maenner Nacht Ernst Weiss:

Narrative Unreliability in the Twentieth-Century First-Person Novel Elke D'hoker, Gunther Martens, 2008-12-10 This volume deals with the occurrence and development of unreliable first person narration in twentieth century Western literature The different articles in this collection approach this topic both from the angle of literary theory and through a detailed reading of literary texts By addressing questions concerning the functions characteristics and types of unreliability this collection contributes to the current theoretical debate about unreliable narration At the same time the collection highlights the different uses to which unreliability has been put in different contexts poetical traditions and literary movements It does so by tracing the unreliable first person narrator in a variety of texts from Dutch German American British French Italian Polish Danish and Argentinean literature In this way this volume significantly extends the traditional canon of narrative unreliability This collection combines essays from some of the foremost theoreticians of unreliability James Phelan Ansgar N nning with essays from experts in different national traditions. The result is a collection that approaches the case of narrative unreliability from a new and more varied perspective Männer in der Nacht Ernst Weiß, 2022-12-17 Reproduktion des Originals Catalog of Copyright Entries.
