Teaching Writing in the Content Areas Vicki Urquhart, Monette McIver, 2005 This book examines nearly 30 years of research to identify how teachers can incorporate writing instruction that helps students master the course content and improve their overall achievement Building on the recommendations of the National Commission on Writing authors Vicki Urquhart and Monette McIver introduce four critical issues teachers should address when they include writing in their content courses Creating a positive environment for the feedback and guidance students need at various stages including prewriting drafting revising and editing Monitoring and assessing how much students are learning through their writing Choosing computer programs that best enhance the writing process Strengthening their knowledge of course content and their own writing skills Practice with Purpose Debbie Diller, 2023-10-10 In her 30 years as an educator Debbie Diller has closely examined classroom practice asking Why What s the purpose Watching primary students work successfully at literacy work stations she wondered with teachers Why don t we have upper grade students doing this Could we kick it up a notch In her new book Debbie shows teachers of grades three to six how to structure their classrooms so that all students can be successful doing meaningful independent work using literacy work stations Practice with Purpose offers guidance on establishing routines for independent reading and response writing as well as step by step instructions on how to set up and manage a variety of hands on literacy work stations appropriate for intermediate students Each chapter includes how to introduce the station innovative ways to use materials what to model to guarantee independence how to troubleshoot assessment and accountability ideas how the station supports student achievement on state tests reflection questions for professional development The extensive appendix includes time saving tools such as management board icons graphic
