Blood and Granite Norman Adams,2013-02-21 Blood and Granite is a chronicle of the most notorious homicides committed in Aberdeen over the last hundred years Written by Norman Adams a journalist who reported on many of the chilling crimes he now recalls so vividly it is compelling reading for those who are too young to remember and those who cannot forget All are human tragedies from the dark side of life including The grudge that ended in death in an East End pub when butcher James Harrow brutally stabbed two workmates in 1901 The grisly discovery of a woman s arm on the Torry shore in 1945 that signalled the start of a mystery which to this day remains unsolved The tragic love affair that led to the gallows in 1963 the first hanging in Aberdeen for 106 years The double life of brilliant scientist Dr Brenda Page of Aberdeen University battered to death in her flat in 1978 Her murder remains unsolved The bar Fishermen, Randies and Fraudsters Malcolm Archibald,2014-03-12 Hugging the coast and crammed between two rivers Aberdeen grew up isolated from Scotland s other urban centres Yet Aberdeen experienced its share of crime in the 19th century The city was plagued by a plethora of prostitutes ravaged by riots and aggravated by assaults There were streets such as Shuttle Lane which respectable people were well advised not to enter a military garrison that could be more trouble than it was worth and dead bodies buried behind a girl s school Trying to keep the city under control were the Town Sergeants and an infant police force that according to Superintendent George Cran relied on the Spengie switch by day and the oaken staff by night The surrounding countryside was every bit as rough As if truculent fishermen and murderous railway navigators were not enough there were also thimble riggers and the Cock o the North to contend with while both city and countryside were plagued by juvenile criminals But overshadowing all and bringing this part of Scotland on the map of international crime were the fraudsters The North East seemed to breed an extraordinary number of women who lived their lives by deceiving others One such was Mrs Gordon Baillie from Peterhead who fooled and beguiled people from Melbourne to New York and her story is now revealed along with the other crimes of 19th century Aberdeen and the North East Common Hangman James

Bland, 2001-12 In this book the author of True Crime Diary and other popular crime book presents a vivid and shocking study of men entrusted with the ghastly duty of carrying out public executions Individual hangmen whose careers are explored in this gruesome history include Gregory Brandon John Ketch John Price John Thrift and William Curry Despite its many horrors this book offers a fascinating gallery of outlandish figures full of authentic details from contemporary sources of information No serious student of crime will want to miss it no connoisseur of the macabre will want to part with it Hangman Brian J. Bailey, 1993 For well over 300 years the chilling figure of the hangman has fascinated and revolted in turns Even the sinister shape of the gallows and the noose fade in comparison with the men who carried out the penalty This book tells the story of the men who put capital punishment into practice A Date with the Hangman T. J. Leech, 1992 Crime and Punishment Trails in Aberdeen & Stonehaven, 201?
