Hannibal (Serapis Classics) Jacob Abbott, 2017-10-16 HANNIBAL was a Carthaginian general He acquired his great distinction as a warrior by his desperate contests with the Romans Rome and Carthage grew up together on opposite sides of the Mediterranean Sea For about a hundred years they waged against each other most dreadful wars There were three of these wars Rome was successful in the end and Carthage was entirely destroyed There was no real cause for any disagreement between these two nations Their hostility to each other was mere rivalry and spontaneous hate They spoke a different language they had a different origin and they lived on opposite sides of the same sea So they hated and devoured each other

Hannibal Jacob Abbott, 2023-06-29 Preface The author of this series has made it his special object to confine himself very strictly even in the most minute details which he records to historic truth The narratives are not tales founded upon history but history itself without any embellishment or any deviations from the strict truth so far as it can now be discovered by an attentive examination of the annals written at the time when the events themselves occurred In writing the narratives the author has endeavored to avail himself of the best sources of information which this country affords and though of course there must be in these volumes as in all historical narratives more or less of imperfection and error there is no intentional embellishment Nothing is stated not even the most minute and apparently imaginary details without what was deemed good historical authority The readers therefore may rely upon the record as the truth and nothing but the truth so far as an honest purpose and a careful examination have been effectual in ascertaining it About the author Jacob Abbott November 14 1803 October 31 1879 was an American writer of children s books On November 14 1803 Abbott was born in Hallowell Maine to Jacob Abbott II and Betsey Chandler He attended the Hallowell Academy Abbott graduated from Bowdoin College in 1820 At some point during his years there he supposedly added the second t to his surname to avoid being Jacob Abbot the 3rd although one source notes he did not actually begin signing his name with two t s until several years later Abbott studied at Andover Theological Seminary in 1821 1822 and 1824 He taught in Portland academy and was tutor in Amherst College during the next year From 1825 to 1829 Abbott was professor of mathematics and natural philosophy at Amherst College was licensed to preach by the Hampshire Association in 1826 founded the Mount Vernon School for Young Ladies in Boston in 1829 and was principal of it in 1829 1833 was pastor of Eliot

Congregational Church which he founded at Roxbury Massachusetts in 1834 1835 and was with his brothers a founder and in 1843 1851 a principal of Abbott s Institute and in 1845 1848 of the Mount Vernon School for Boys in New York City He was a prolific author writing juvenile fiction brief histories biographies religious books for the general reader and a few works in popular science He wrote 180 books and was a coauthor or editor of 31 more He died in Farmington Maine where he had spent part of his time after 1839 and where his brother Samuel Phillips Abbott founded the Abbott School His Rollo Books such as Rollo at Play Rollo in Europe etc are the best known of his writings having as their chief characters a representative boy and his associates In them Abbott did for one or two generations of young American readers a service not unlike that performed earlier in England and America by the authors of Evenings at Home The History of Sandford and Merton and The Parent s Assistant To follow up his Rollo books he wrote of Uncle George using him to teach the young readers about ethics geography history and science He also wrote 22 volumes of biographical histories and a 10 volume set titled the Franconia Stories wikipedia org
