Anne Frank Unbound Barbara Kishenblatt-Gimblett, Jeffrey Shandler, 2018-11-01 A brilliantly conceived and long overdue opening up or deconstruction of the Anne Frank story James Clifford Professor Emeritus History of Consciousness Department University of California As millions of people around the world who have read her diary attest Anne Frank the most familiar victim of the Holocaust has a remarkable place in contemporary memory Anne Frank Unbound looks beyond this young girl's words at the numerous ways people have engaged her life and writing Apart from officially sanctioned works and organizations there exists a prodigious amount of cultural production which encompasses literature art music film television blogs pedagogy scholarship religious ritual and comedy Created by both artists and amateurs these responses to Anne Frank range from veneration to irreverence Although at times they challenge conventional perceptions of her significance these works testify to the power of Anne Frank the writer and Anne Frank the cultural phenomenon as people worldwide forge their own connections with the diary and its author This collection of brilliant essays offers fascinating and unexpected insights into the significance of Anne Frank's iconic Holocaust era diary from many disciplinary perspectives in the arts and humanities Jan T Gross the Norman B Tomlinson Professor of War and Society Princeton University This volume is a major contribution to scholarship regarding Anne Frank's diary and its cultural influence Highly recommended Choice Engrossing The overall aim is to provide a greater understanding of the general and particular engagement with Anne Frank as a person a symbol an icon an inspiration and perhaps most polarizing as one victim not the victim of the Nazi holocaust Broadside Let's Throw a Hanukkah Party! Rachel Lynette, 2011-08-15 Presents ideas for hosting a Hanukkah party and discusses the history of the holiday Anne Frank on the Postwar Dutch Stage Remco Ensle, 2021-09-28 This book is a case study into the affective history of Holocaust drama offering a new perspective on the impact of The Diary of Anne Frank the pivotal 1950s play that was a turning point in Holocaust consciousness Despite its overwhelming success criticism of the Broadway makeover has been harsh suggesting that the alleged Americanization would not do justice to the violence of the Holocaust or Anne Frank's budding Jewishness. This study revisits these issues by focusing on the play's European appropriation delving into the emotional intensity with which the play was produced and received. The core of the exploration is a history of the Dutch staging in ethnographic detail based on unique archival material such as correspondence with Otto Frank, prompt books, original tapes, blueprints of the set, and oral history. The microhistory of the first Dutch performance of the stage adaptation of Anne Frank's diary examines the staging in the context of the postwar hesitant development of publicly voiced Holocaust consciousness. Influenced by memory studies and affect theory, the emphasis is on the emotional impact of the drama on both the members of the cast and the audience and will be of great interest to students and scholars in theater and performance studies, memory studies, cultural history, Jewish studies, Holocaust studies, and contemporary European history.

The Play of the Diary of Anne Frank Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, 1995. Dramatisation of the events in the diary of Anne Frank. The play tells the story of Anne Frank who went into hiding for two years with her family and friends before being discovered by the Nazis and sent to the concentration camp. The book includes assignments about the characters and themes of the play.

Under the Mistletoe Liz W. Faber, 2024-12-19. When you think of holiday romance in popular culture, you probably imagine the formulaic made-for-TV movies we all love to watch: a career gal moves from the big city to a small town where she finds the love of her life and the true meaning of Christmas. Yet as with so much of the romance genre, our favorite holiday movies, books, TV episodes, and plays are so much richer than the oft-derided formula. The 22 essays in this volume turn a scholarly eye to one of our most beloved and under-examined subgenres, offering celebrations and criticisms alike of Christmas, New Year, Hanukkah, and Diwali romances. This work includes voices from global scholars across an impressive breadth of disciplines: literature, history, theater, media, gender, and sexuality studies, sociology, psychology, anthropology, law, and victim studies. Readers will delight in celebrations of old classics like Christmas in Connecticut, new favorites like A Holly Jolly Diwali, and everything in between.

Christmas Rekindled Sadira Stone, 2020-10-05. When two Scrooges collide under the mistletoe, their kiss blazes too hot to handle. Stuck with her cranky, injured dad over the holidays, all Charlie wants for Christmas is a break. A temporary job at Bangers Tavern is the perfect way to let off steam and escape Dad's criticism. But why does the hunky bartender hate her on sight? River's holiday wish: avoid his matchmaking mother, ride out his grief, and flee the holiday fuss. Bangers Tavern is his refuge until sassy, snarky Charlie sashays in just as smoking hot as when they first met. And she doesn't even remember him. Ouch. A fake date or two should get their interfering families off their backs No big deal right But shared holiday celebrations stir up messy feelings and irresistible desire When greedy developers come gunning for the bar they both love River and Charlie must team up to save it Come to Bangers Tavern for an enemies to lovers tale of reconciliation found family holiday shenanigans and the steamiest Christmas miracle ever Rockin' Around the Chickadee Donna Andrews, 2024-10-15 Bells are ringing and alarms are sounding in Donna Andrews latest cheery addition in the New York Times bestselling Meg Langslow series Meg's sister in law Delaney is pregnant Since her due date is on or around Christmas Day this is putting a bit of a damper on the usual holiday festivities Meg and Michael are NOT hosting the usual house full of relatives and parties Instead Meg along with her mother her grandmother her cousin Rose Noire and her good friend Caroline are militantly doing everything they can think of to keep Delaney quiet and healthy All the relatives are farmed out to friends and neighbors all the parties are being held somewhere else and while Delaney is bored and mutinous she's doing well and they're managing to maintain a serene peaceful environment for her until a body is found in Meg and Michael's yard The body turns out to be an attendee at Presumed Innocent a nearby conference that Meg's grandmother has organized Some of the attendees want to learn how to exonerate a friend or family members who has been unjustly convicted while the rest are avid true crime aficionados And since the dead guy has been very vocal about his belief that most actual and would be exonerees are guilty guilty GUILTY nearly everyone at the conference dislikes him But would any of them hate him enough to kill him And can Meg still keep Delaney calm in the middle of a murder investigation all while trying to catch the killer Black House/ White House Charles Fletcher, 2013-03-28 This book is about the hundreds of emails that was received from The White House and President Barack Obama in the last of his first four year term in Office As the First Black African American President as the occupant in the White house President Obama has been ridiculed by his critics beyond any racial insensitivity of any President in the history of that Office The good thing about this book is that there are hundreds of web sites that the reader can click on to get in depth details about the articles in question The President has made it clear that his Administration would have an open door policy and transparent for the people We stayed Connected to The White House It's Tu B'Shevat! Edie Stoltz Zolkower, 2011-08-01 Rhyming verse and brightly colored illustrations tell the story of a boy and his family planting a tree for Tu B Shevat and watching it grow This board book is just right for little hands Building a Children's Chapel Bill Gordh, 2007-10 Based on his work with young children at the Episcopal School of New York teacher and storyteller Gordh offers a collection of stories from the Bible arranged and told to create a meaningful childhood chapel for children ages 3-7 and their families Originally conceived as a resource for use in day schools it is also ideal for use in Sunday church schools in Episcopal and other mainline congregations This exciting resource contains Advice and tips on creating a children's chapel including challenges of using available space Techniques for retelling stories for young listeners including the use of songs and artwork Suggestions for including parents in the chapel experience and for making chapel meaningful to families from
