Keeping An Eye Open Essays On Art:

Keeping an Eye Open Julian Barnes, 2015-10-06 An extraordinary collection of essays on the great masters of nineteenth and twentieth century art from the Booker Prize winning bestselling author of The Sense of an Ending An engaging and empathetic volume The New York Times Book Review As Julian Barnes notes Flaubert believed that it was impossible to explain one art form in terms of another and that great paintings required no words of explanation Braque thought the ideal state would be reached when we said nothing at all in front of a painting But it is a rare picture that stuns or argues us into silence And if one does it is only a short time before we want to explain and understand the very silence into which we have been plunged This is the exact dynamic that informs his new book In his 1989 novel A History of the World in 10 Chapters Barnes had a chapter on Gericault's The Raft of the Medusa and since then he has written about many great masters of art including Delacroix Manet Fantin Latour Cezanne Degas Redon Bonnard Vuillard Vallotton Braque Magritte Oldenburg Lucian Freud and Howard Hodgkin The seventeen essays gathered here help trace the arc from Romanticism to Realism and into Modernism they are adroit insightful and above all a true pleasure to read Forms of Enchantment: Writings on Art and Artists Marina Warner, 2018-10-23 An anthology of enlightening writing by an award winning critic that engages with art in its social political and aesthetic contexts Art writing at its most useful should share the dynamism fluidity and passions of the objects of its enquiry argues author Marina Warner in this new anthology Here some of Warner's most compelling writing captures the visual experience of the work of a diverse group of artists with a notable focus on the inner lives of women through an exploration of the range of stories and symbols to which they allude in their work Warner vividly describes this imagery covering the connection with animals in the work of Louise Bourgeois the Catholicism of Damien Hirst performance as a medium of memory in the installations of Joan Jonas and more Rather than drawing on connoisseurship Warner's approach grows principally out of anthropology and mythology Accompanied by illustrations of the works being described Marina Warner's writing unites the imagination of artist writer and reader creating a reading experience that parallels the intrinsic pleasure of looking at art This book will appeal to any student of art history those interested in philosophy feminism and more generally in the humanities Beyond Psychoanalytic Literary Criticism Benjamin H. Ogden, 2018-04-17 Through a series of radical and innovative chapters Beyond Psychoanalytic Literary Criticism Between Literature and Mind challenges the tradition of applied psychoanalysis that has long dominated psychoanalytic literary criticism Benjamin H. Ogden a literary scholar proposes that a new form of analytic literary criticism take its place one that begins from a place of respect for the mystery of literature and the complexity of its inner workings In this book through readings of authors such as J. M. Coetzee Flannery O'Connor and Vladimir Nabokov the mysteries upon which literary works rely for their enduring power are enumerated and studied Such mysteries are thereafter interwoven into a series of pioneering studies of how the conceptions of thinking dreaming and losing become meaningful within the unique aesthetic conditions of individual novels and poems Each chapter is a provisional solution to the difficult bridging problems that arise when literary figures work in the psychoanalytic space and when psychoanalysts attempt to make use of literature for analytic purposes At every turn Beyond Psychoanalytic Literary Criticism Between Literature and Mind acts as a living example of the territory it explores the space between two disciplines wherein the writer brings into being a form of psychoanalytic literary criticism of his own making Forgoing traditional applied psychoanalysis and technical jargon this highly accessible interdisciplinary work will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as literary critics and scholars Julian Barnes from the Margins Vanessa Guignery, 2020-03-05 Exploring the archives of the Man Booker prize winning novelist Julian Barnes including notebooks drafts typescripts and publishing correspondence this book is an extraordinary in depth study of the creative practice of a major contemporary novelist In Julian Barnes from the Margins Vanessa Guignery charts the genesis and publication history of all of Barnes's major novels from his debut with Metroland through Flaubert's Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters to The Sense of an Ending The Life of Percy Bysshe Shelley John Worthen, 2019-04-29 Drawing especially on the many scholarly discoveries of recent years this biography examines the life and death of one of the greatest Romantic poets Based on sceptical historical investigation and featuring an in depth look at Shelley's personal financial and familial situation it builds a compelling narrative about a controversial writer and thinker whose personal and philosophical convictions caused much turmoil during his short yet extraordinarily influential life The Life of Percy Bysshe Shelley reveals sides of the author not often studied It looks at Shelley as an intensely loving thoughtful and responsible man and father who except in one case took exemplary care of the women he loved and who fell in love with him It shows how significant his status as a gentleman was it examines his poetry letters notebooks and discursive prose so that readers can comprehend the most important concerns of his life it explores the financial and medical grounds for his years of exile it is also the first biography to take account of his recently discovered early long poem the Poetical Essay on the Existing State of Things This biography offers readers a unique look at a famous poet scholar gentleman democrat atheist and tragic icon of English Romanticism All the Colour in the World CS Richardson, 2024-08-06 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2023 GILLER PRIZE The story of the restorative power of art in one man's life set against the sweep of the twentieth century from Toronto in the 20s and 30s through the killing fields of World War II to 1960s Sicily Bold and resplendent Nita Prose 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Maid Supremely artful Toronto Star Henry born 1916 thin as sticks nearsighted is an obsessive doodler copying illustrations from his Boy's Own magazines Left in the care of a nurturing Shakespeare quoting grandmother eight year old Henry receives as a gift his first set of colouring pencils and a pocket knife for the sharpening As he commits these colours to memory cadmium yellow burnt ochre deep scarlet red a passion for art colour and the stories of the great artists takes hold and becomes Henry's unique way of seeing the world It is a passion that will both haunt and sustain him on his journey through the century from boyhood dreams on a summer beach to the hothouse

The Only Story Julian Barnes,2018-04-17 From the bestselling Booker Prize winning author of The Sense of an Ending comes a brilliant rueful look at love what we do for it how we experience it and what makes it die People One summer in the sixties in a staid suburb south of London nineteen year old Paul comes home from university and is urged by his mother to join the tennis club There he s partnered with Susan Macleod a fine player who s forty eight confident witty and married with two nearly adult daughters She is a warm companion her bond with Paul immediate And soon inevitably they are lovers Basking in the glow of one another they set up house together in London Decades later Paul looks back at how they fell in love and how gradually relentlessly everything fell apart As he turns over his only story in his mind examining it from different vantage points he finds himself confronted with the contradictions and slips of his own memory and the ways in which our narratives and our lives shape one another Poignant vivid and profound The Only Story is a searing novel of memory devotion and how first love fixes a life forever

Behluli,2025-05-30 This book addresses the recent surge of Anglo American novels about visual art since the 2010s and interprets it as a coming of age of an old literary sub genre which is here termed as the ekphrastic novel These novels are distinguished by their systematic use of ekphrasis which creatively and critically negotiates the intertwined aesthetics of literature and visual art By addressing the challenge of representing visual images such as photographs paintings and art installations with words these novels reveal a greater interest in exploring how and why we engage with art rather than merely depicting the art itself In this way ekphrastic novels present themselves as powerful practitioners and critics of contemporary image making The book focuses on four aspects emerging from ekphrastic passages value form affect and scale to explore critical questions posed by contemporary ekphrastic novels Who has the power to assign value today and at what cost Which social political historical cultural and ethical dimensions are obscured by certain forms and how can ekphrasis re introduce these aspects into public discourse What affects do images and artworks elicit and how do they reinforce or challenge existing value systems How can narrative scale uncover potential injustices in the interplay between life and art Moreover what insights do ekphrastic novels offer into contemporary reading habits and strategies By tracing a literary tradition from nineteenth century to contemporary fiction and offering detailed close readings of several critically acclaimed and widely read contemporary novels this book delves into the theoretical and practical intersections of ekphrasis and the novel

The Great Illustrators of Edgar Allan Poe Tony

Magistrale,Jessica Slayton,2021-05-11 Although there have been over 700 illustrators of Poe s work over the past two centuries this book chooses to examine only the best of them Beginning with the French in the nineteenth century and tracing the great illustrators of Poe to the present this book not only provides close analyses of individual visualizations but also seeks to supply an art history context to understanding their emergence The majority of the artists featured remain unknown even to Poe scholars although their artwork represents iterations inspired by the most famous of Poe s poems and stories In some cases the illustrations helped increase the visibility of particular Poe works and to make them part of the international Poe canon A few of the illustrators featured in this book e g Manet Dor Redon Beardsley are recognized among the most famous artists in the world Others such as Martini and Blumenschein while remaining minor figures in art history nevertheless produced immortal work based on Poe s fiction and poetry While still other visual artists represented here Rackham Dulac Clarke achieved artistic fame as book illustrators based on homages to other writers and fairy tales in combination with their Poe studies their work on Poe however helped to solidify their larger reputations as professional illustrators The last chapter extends traditional visualizations influenced by Poe to include his impact on twentieth and twenty first century filmmakers and cartoonists They too found in Poe s writing either a source for direct re creation or an inspiration for their own atmospheric excursions into the bizarre the exotic and the psychologically complex

Making Believe Magdalene Redekop, 2020-04-10 Making Believe responds to a remarkable flowering of art by Mennonites in Canada After the publication of his first novel in 1962 Rudy Wiebe was the only identifiable Mennonite literary writer in the country Beginning in the 1970s the numbers grew rapidly and now include writers Patrick Friesen Sandra Birdsell Di Brandt Sarah Klassen Armin Wiebe David Bergen Miriam Toews Carrie Snyder Casey Plett and many more A similar renaissance is evident in the visual arts including artists Gathie Falk Wanda Koop and Aganetha Dyck and in music including composers Randolph Peters Carol Ann Weaver and Stephanie Martin Confronted with an embarrassment of riches that resist survey Magdalene Redekop opts for the use of case studies to raise questions about Mennonites and art Part criticism part memoir Making Believe argues that there is no such thing as Mennonite art At the same time her close engagement with individual works of art paradoxically leads Redekop to identify a Mennonite sensibility at play in the space where artists from many cultures interact

Constant questioning and commitment to community are part of the Mennonite dissenting tradition. Although these values come up against the legacy of radical Anabaptist hostility to art, Redekop argues that the Early Modern roots of a contemporary crisis of representation are shared by all artists. Making Believe posits a Spielraum or play space in which all artists are dissembling tricksters but differences in how we play are inflected by where we come from. The close readings in this book insist on respect for difference at the same time as they invite readers to find common ground while making believe across cultures.
