On Keeping the Heart John Flavel,2010-09-10 John Flavel s Keeping the Heart is one of the best books written since the close of the Apostolic age Readers will sense that Flavel was a man who truly did walk with God His subject the keeping and right ordering of the heart is one of the most important and also most ignored aspects of the Christian life It is also what separates those who go about their business for decades without giving thought to their hearts and those who commune with God in all that they do Using Proverbs 4 23 Keep your heart with all vigilance for from it flow the springs of life Flavel teaches that the contents of the heart be laid bare so that sin which is present is seen as sin and dealt with and the heart becomes pure in its devotion and affection for God Flavel guides readers to accomplish this not with law but by constantly pointing to God's grace as the grounds and means for sanctification John Flavel was not content to merely convey information Rather with each point he carefully took aim at the very soul of the reader and deftly fired shot after gospel saturated God glorifying shot Read this book slowly and prayerfully allowing each purifying blow to have its full effect on your heart
