Consequently, we decided the subject was successful enough that we should conduct a re-painting of the 1700s. On this occasion, we had the opportunity to transfer the subject's head to a new painting, and the subject's previous anatomy was necessary to make it work with the new. The subject's head was placed in the subject's new position, and the subject's head was placed in the subject's new position.

...the simple and simple emotions with it. But I've included the topic in this book because it shows that there is a certain nobility in the way that the human mind works. It is the fact that we are able to do this that makes us so interesting and so complex.
