Hearst's International ,1924 The Memoirs of a Young Bastard Tim Burstall,2012 Tim Burstall the celebrated director of Stork Alvin Purple and numerous other definitive ocker comedies is credited with shaking the moribund Australian film industry out of its torpor But long before that in the early 1950s he began keeping a diary to record the world of the group of arties and intellectuals he was living among in Eltham then a rural area outside Melbourne where cheap land was available for mudbrick houses and studios and where suburban rigidities could be mercilessly flouted Burstall was in his mid twenties with two young sons and an open marriage with his wife Betty Eager to become a writer to go against the grain he kept a record almost daily of the parties and the talk in pubs and studios about art and politics and sex of Communist Party branch meetings and film societies of political rallies and the first Herald Outdoor Art Show Somehow while holding down a public relations job in the Antarctic Division and juggling his love affairs and obsession with the beautiful brainy Fay he wrote 500 words almost every day Betty according to the diaries kept the show on the road feeding friends after the pub milking goats and working in her pottery making bowls and mugs which Tim sometimes decorated at weekends These Memoirs of a Young Bastard as Burstall dubbed himself and them are among the most evocative Australian diaries of modern times Burstall can write He has an eye for the telling detail an unerring ear for cant and pomposity and most endearingly an ability to mock himself always from the perspective of a bloke of his generation Hearst's International Combined with Cosmopolitan ,1948 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context Laura Savu Walker,2015-11-19 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context offers a timely contribution to the debates about the good life that surround us every day in the media politics the humanities and social sciences The authors examine the relationship between the good life and the greater good as represented across different genres media cultures and disciplines This enables them to develop a framework of values that transcends the overly rational and individualistic model of the good life advanced by neoliberalism and the happiness industry Thus over and against normative conceptualizations of the good life that reduce meaning to money creativity to consumption and compassion to self help the contributors propose an ethically charged philosophy of living that views the care for the self for the other and for the planet as the catalysts of true human flourishing In addition to recovering the original usage of the good life from classical thought especially the Aristotelian understanding of eudaimonia as living well and doing well the essays gathered here highlight its entanglement with distinctly modern ideas of happiness wellbeing flourishing progress revolution democracy the American Dream utopia and sustainability As such the essays capture the breadth and depth of the conversation about the good life that is of central importance to how we relate to the past engage the present and envision the future Caring for the World Paul K. Drain,Stephen A. Huffman,2009-01-01 Caring for the World assembles the stories experience and advice of prominent global health practitioners in this inspired guidebook for health care workers who are interested in or already are improving the lives of people throughout the world

Becoming Elizabeth Arden Stacy A. Cordery, 2024-09-03 A sweeping biography of one of the most influential and successful business women in American history BECOMING ELIZABETH ARDEN opens the Red Door to a world of wealth glamor and the profitable business of beauty Elizabeth Arden was a household name on six continents and a millionaire several times over before her death in 1966 Arden counted British royalty and social elites from the overlapping worlds of New York Hollywood London and Paris among her clients She revolutionized skin care and cosmetics making it acceptable for all women to embrace glamour and wear makeup not just actresses and prostitutes She created a successful international business empire before women gained the vote and at a time when virtually no woman owned or ran a national company She developed the first luxury spa and insisted on a holistic understanding of health and beauty Unconventional and driven Arden fervently believed that every woman could be beautiful Acclaimed biographer Stacy Cordery does full justice to one of America's greatest entrepreneurs Canadian born Florence Nightingale Graham turned herself into Elizabeth Arden using her uncanny sense of the possible to take full advantage of everything New York City offered building her company and becoming one with her brand In an astounding rags to riches tale Elizabeth Arden came to personify sophistication and refinement Her hard work and innovation made makeup fitness and style not only acceptable but de rigueur Arden prospered throughout the Depression reimagined women's needs during two World Wars and by pioneering new approaches to marketing and advertising ushered beauty into the modern era Cordery delivers a compelling picture of a modern CEO whose career provides a model for aspiring businesses to this day Global Warming For Dummies Elizabeth May, Zoe Caron, 2009-09-02 Get positive suggestions for practical solutions to this heated issue Hotly debated in the political arena and splashed across the media almost 24/7 global warming has become the topic of the moment Whatever one's views on its cause there is no denying that the earth's climate is changing and people everywhere are worried Global Warming For Dummies sorts out fact from fiction explaining the science behind climate change and examining the possible long term effects of a warmer planet This no nonsense yet friendly guide helps you explore solutions to this challenging problem from what governments and industry can do to what you can do at home and how to get involved North Korea in Quotation, 2005-06-30 Since the end of World War II the small country of North Korea has occupied a disproportionate amount of the world's diplomatic and military attention Its defiance of the international community has mystified and frustrated generations of leaders both in Asia and throughout the world With its closed borders and xenophobic leadership little is known about North Korea's government or its intentions leaving us to examine the words of the country's leaders and international statesmen analysts and journalists for a balanced critical assessment of North Korea and its relationship to the world The 20 categories covered here provide an overview of the breadth of issues facing the Northeast Asian country For each quote the speaker and his or her title are identified along with the original source of the quotation and its context Indexed by speaker subject and keywords
