Hard Times The Worlds Classics:

Hard Times Charles Dickens, 1998-03-05 Unusually for Dickens Hard Times is set not in London but in the imaginary mid Victorian Northern industrial town of Coketown with its blackened factories downtrodden workers and polluted environment This is the soulless domain of the strict utilitarian Thomas Gradgrind and the heartless factory owner Josiah Bounderby

The Best of the World's Classics Henry Cabot Lodge, Francis Whiting Halsey, 1909 The Best of the World's Classics, Restricted to Prose Henry Cabot Lodge, 1909 Dickens, Family, Authorship Lynn Cain, 2017-05-15

Drawing on a wide range of Dickens's writings including all of his novels and a selection of his letters journalism and shorter fiction Dickens Family Authorship provides a provocative account of the evolution of an author from whose psychological honesty and imaginative generosity emerged precocious fictional portents of Freudian and post Freudian theory The decade 1843-1853 was pivotal in Dickens's career A phase of feverish activity on both personal and professional fronts it included the irrevocable souring of his relations with his parents the peripatetic residence in continental Europe and a massive proliferation of writing and editing activities including the aborted autobiography It was a period of astounding creativity which consolidated Dickens's authorial and financial stature It was also one tainted by loss the deaths of his father sister and daughter and the alarming desertion of his early facility for composition Lynn Cain's substantial study of the four novels produced during this turbulent decade Martin Chuzzlewit Dombey and Son David Copperfield and Bleak House traces the evolution of Dickens's creative imagination to discover in the modulating fictional representation of family relationships a paradigm for his authorial development Closely argued readings demonstrate a reorientation from a patriarchal to a maternal dynamic which signals a radical shift in Dickens's creative technique Interweaving critical analysis of the four novels with biography and the linguistic and psychoanalytic writings of modern theorists especially Kristeva and Lacan Lynn Cain explores the connection between Dickens's susceptibility to depression during this period and his increasingly self-conscious exploitation of his own mental states in his fiction

The Nineteenth-Century Novel: Realisms Delia Correa Sousa de, 2013-05-13 The essays in this volume trace the experimentation of nineteenth century writers in advancing new modes of realist fiction while revitalizing the inheritance of the Gothic and the Romantic Focusing on some of the most popular novels of the century Northanger Abbey Jane Eyre Dombey and Son Middlemarch Far from the Madding Crowd and Germinal this attractive volume explores some of the recurring themes in nineteenth century fiction aspiration and vocation social class sexual politics political reform colonialism and commerce This is an ideal introduction to some of the major fictional achievements of the first industrial era and to most of the crucial themes in nineteenth century fiction Liminal Dickens Valerie Kennedy, Katerina Kitsi-Mitakou, 2016-05-11 Liminal Dickens is a collection of essays which cast new light on some surprisingly neglected areas of Dickens's writings the rites of passage represented by such transitional moments and ceremonies as birth christenings weddings marriages and death Although a great deal of attention has been paid to the family in Dickens's works relatively little has been said about his representations of these moments and ceremonies Similarly although there have been discussions of Dickens's religious beliefs neither his views on death and dying nor his ideas about the afterlife have been analysed in any great detail Moreover this collection arising from a conference on Dickens held in Thessaloniki in 2012 explores how Dickens's preoccupation with these transitional phases reflects his own liminality and his varying positions regarding some main Victorian concerns such as religion social institutions progress and modes of writing The book is composed of four parts Part One concerns Dickens's tendency to see birth and death as part of a continuum rather than as entirely separate states Part Two looks at his unconventional responses to adolescence as a transitional period and to the marriage ceremony as an often unsuccessful rite de passage Part Three analyses his partial divergence from certain widely held Victorian views about progress evolution sanitation and the provisions made for the poor and Part Four focuses on two of his novels which are seen as transgressing conventional genre boundaries Palgrave Advances in Charles Dickens Studies R.
