Zane Grey - Ken Ward in the Jungle Zane Grey,2016-04-22 Pearl Zane Grey was born January 31st 1872 in Zanesville Ohio From an early age he was intrigued by history fishing baseball and writing all of which would stimulate his later success Grey was an avid reader of adventure stories consuming dime store novels by the dozen By age fifteen he had written his first story Jim of the Cave His father a difficult man tore it to shreds and then beat him He and his brother were keen fisherman and baseball players with aspirations of playing in the major leagues Eventually Grey was spotted by a baseball scout and received offers from colleges Grey took up an offer from the University of Pennsylvania to studied dentistry Naturally arriving on a scholarship really meant you had to be able to play He rose to the occasion by playing against the Riverton club pitching five scoreless innings and a double in the tenth which tied down the win Sports scholarship kids can be average scholars Grey certainly was He preferred to spend his time outside class not trying to raise his grades but playing baseball swimming and writing At university he was shy and teetotal more of a loner than a party animal Grey struggled with the idea of becoming a writer or baseball player for his career but unhappily resolved that dentistry was the practical choice Grey set up his dental practice in New York as Dr Zane Grey after graduating in 1896 Though a dentist his real ambition now was to be a writer and New York had lots of publishers Evenings were set aside for writing to offset the tedium of his dental practice His first magazine article A Day on the Delaware a human interest story about a Grey brothers fishing expedition was published in the May 1902 issue of Recreation magazine After some rejections he wrote his first Western The Heritage of the Desert in 1910 It was the breakthrough It quickly became a bestseller Here was Grey s over arching themes Manifest Destiny the conquest of the Old West and men wrestling with elemental conditions Two years later Grey produced his best known book Riders of the Purple Sage 1912 his all time best seller With its publication Zane Grey became a household name Grey started his association with Hollywood when William Fox bought the rights to Riders of the Purple Sage for 2 500 in 1916 His writing career would now rise in sync with that of the movie industry During the crash and subsequent depression of the 1930s the publishing industry was hard work Sales fell off Serializations were harder to sell Grey was lucky He had avoided investing in the Stock Market he was still writing and very popular and continued to earn royalty income This also coincided with the time that nearly half of the film adaptations of his novels were made Zane Grey died of heart failure on October 23rd 1939 at his home in Altadena California He was interred at the Lackawaxen and Union Cemetery Lackawaxen Pennsylvania
