Pilgrimage to Images in the Fifteenth Century Robert Maniura, 2004 A case study of the meaning and purpose of pilgrimage based on the image of the scarred Virgin Our Lady of Czestochowa The tradition of pilgrimage to an image is so well established as to be taken for granted Throughout Christian history large numbers of people have made journeys to images associated with miracles yet the phenomenon has never been a subject of detailed scholarly scrutiny This book explores the issue through a case study of the origins of pilgrimage to one such image Our Lady of Czestochowa in Poland The shrine remains one of the most prominent pilgrimage destinations in the Catholic world the striking focal panel painting shows the Virgin Mary with an apparently scarred face and the legend of the picture's origin claims that it was painted by St Luke and desecrated by iconoclasts The author assesses the significance of the stories attached to the shrine and goes beyond them to consider the practices and responses of the pilgrims Drawing on the earliest surviving miracle collections he also explores the interaction between the pilgrims and the image of the scarred Virgin ROBERT MANIURA is Lecturer in the History of Renaissance Art Birkbeck College University of London

Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan, 2024-10-28
In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley
