Imagination:

Psychological Commentaries on the Teaching of Gurdjieff and Ouspensky Maurice Nicoll, 1996-08-01 When Maurice Nicholl was studying in Zurich he met Jung and Ouspensky He went on to study with Gurdjieff and from 1931 to his death in 1953 he began at Ouspensky's request a programme of work devoted to passing on the ideas he had received Reissued in hard cover these five unedited commentaries are taken from the weekly lectures and talks Nicoll gave to his students in England and which were recorded verbatim the sixth volume is an index produced by the Gurdjieff society Washington DC These differ from Nicholl's more polished works they are more concerned with directly applying certain deep ideas to daily life

The Passionate Mind of Maxine Greene William F. Pinar, William Pinar, 1998 This collection of work is an analysis and investigation into Maxine Greene the most important philosopher of education in the United States today The book opens and concludes with Greene's own autobiographical statements

Fantasies of Witnessing Gary Weissman, 2004 Introduction to feel the horror Reading Wiesel The Holocaust experience Shoah illustrated Steven Spielberg and the sensitive line Claude Lanzmann and the Ring of Fire Conclusion the horror the horror

The Soul of Beauty Ronald Schenk, 1992 The problem explored in The Soul of Beauty is the split in modern consciousness between the world of perception and appearance on the one hand and the world of action and meaning on the other We see in one way and find truth in another The work presents this dualism as a problem in the modern sense of beauty The intent of the book is the recovery of beauty as that which brings together such contemporary splits as perception and action appearance and meaning matter and spirit subject and object Beauty is imaged in two paradigms The first presents beauty as a matter of appearance which holds meaning beauty as truth The second holds that beauty is subjective experience which in its modern sense is divorced from knowledge and practical action beauty as relative experience The paradigms are formed through an imaginative and historical exploration of the tradition of beauty in Western consciousness The prototype of the first paradigm beauty as appearance is seen in the goddess Aphrodite who reflects the Greek sense of divinity in form itself This paradigm is then founded upon the tradition of Plato in the Phaedrus and the Symposium Plotinus Dionysius and Ficino The major elements of this paradigm are depicted in beauty as 1 source in a hierarchical universe 2 universal mediator 3 object of love 4 human perception 5 human knowledge 6 light and 7 unity goodness and being The suggestion is made that the paradigm of beauty as appearance is relevant for psychology as a study of soul because it brings together perception and meaning The paradigm of beauty as a subjective experience focuses historically upon beauty as a spiritual conceptual proportion methodological linear perspective and subjective phenomenon In the tradition of proportion and subjectivism knowledge is gained through perception that occurs via an organizing system such as mathematics or a concept such as proportion rather than through the direct perception of appearance Meaning is separated from perception and the organizing system or concept not appearance becomes the ground of knowledge It is suggested that this paradigm reflected in scientific and conceptual psychology is problematic for psychology as a study of soul Instead psychology conducts its endeavors in the service of identification with the divine control over the physical world and certainty of consciousness The final portion of the work examines the recovery of beauty as appearance in contemporary psychology through the notion of image in Jung s later thought and the phenomenon of psychotherapy The work concludes with a presentation of psychology as an aesthetic enterprise bringing together meaning and appearance spirit and matter art and science subject and object      Literary Criticism--idea and Act English

The Power of the Between Paul Stoller,2009-05-15 It is the anthropologist s fate to always be between things countries languages cultures even realities But rather than lament this anthropologist Paul Stoller here celebrates the creative power of the between showing how it can transform us changing our conceptions of who we are what we know and how we live in the world Beginning with his early days with the Peace Corps in Africa and culminating with a recent bout with cancer The Power of the Between is an evocative account of the circuitous path Stoller s life has taken offering a fascinating depiction of how a career is shaped over decades of reading and research Stoller imparts his accumulated wisdom not through grandiose pronouncements but by drawing on his gift for storytelling Tales of his apprenticeship to a sorcerer in Niger his studies with Claude L vi Strauss in Paris and his friendships with West African street vendors in New York City accompany philosophical reflections on love memory power courage health and illness Graced with Stoller s trademark humor and narrative elegance

The Power of the Between is both the story of a distinguished career and a profound meditation on coming to terms with the impermanence of all things     The Pedagogical Seminary ,1907 Vols 5 15 include Bibliography of child study by Louis N Wilson     Idealism, Pragmatism, and Feminism John J. Kaag,2011-01-01 Idealism Pragmatism and Feminism provides an account of the life and writings of Ella Lyman Cabot 1866 1934 a woman who received formal training but not formal recognition in the field of classical American philosophy It highlights the themes of idealism pragmatism and feminism as they emerged in the course of career as an educational reformer and ethicist that spanned nearly four decades Cabot s writings developed in graduate seminars at Harvard and Radcliffe at the turn of the century complement and in many cases anticipate the thinking of the fathers of the American philosophical cannon Charles Sanders Peirce Josiah Royce William James and John Dewey Her formal philosophical writing focuses on the concepts of growth creativity and the moral imagination a fact that is especially interesting given that these concepts are developed by a woman who faced serious obstacles in her personal and intellectual development Indeed these concepts are not merely philosophical ideals but practical tools that Ella Lyman Cabot used to negotiate the gender roles and intellectual marginalization that she faces at the turn of the century The discipline of philosophy was very slow to incorporate the insights of women into its self definition An analysis of the writings of Ella Lyman Cabot reveals this point but also the pointed ways in which she sought to express her genuinely creative insights     The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell,2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery     Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities Mohammad H. Francis of Assisi as Artist of the Spiritual Life Andrew T. McCarthy,2010-08-13 Francis of Assisi as Artist of the Spiritual Life applies modern psychological understanding to a historical person While most such studies have sought a comprehensive personality profile this work focuses on one aspect Francis imagination and seeks greater insight into the imaginatively inspired spiritual vision of St Francis An analysis of Francis writings builds on a survey of modern views of the imagination and the approach of ORT or Object Relations Theory ORT with its contention that the imaginative creation of an infant s world develops out of the earliest interactions with the maternal caregiver highlights the way Francis formed his way of visualizing the reality around him While any study of a person 800 years in the grave is more dependent on what is plausible than on what is determinable this study finds numerous examples where Francis writings display an adept use of imagination and even encourages others in that use in a manner that corresponds to an ORT perspective on tutoring the imagination
